2nd straight state soccer title here?

Can the Granite City High School South soccer Warriors repeat as Illinois state champions? The answer will be known soon.

The Warriors oppose New Trier East at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Northern Illinois University, DeKalb. In the one-loss-out tourney, South is the only one of the eight teams unbeaten in Illinois play this fall.

The victor will oppose either Gordon Tech or Wheaton Central at 9:30 a.m. Saturday. Those surviving that morning's semifinal games will collide for the state crown at 7:30 p.m. Saturday. Potential Warrior foes then are Palatine, Quigley South, Cicero or Chicago Shurs.

Regardless of the outcome, there will be a welcoming-back reception Sunday afternoon at the Memorial Gymnasium at South, probably at about 3 o'clock. Details of the state tournament are given on Page 10 of today's Press-Record.

Crushed by train

William W. Adams, 43, an employee at Granite City Steel for 25 years, was injured fatally while working at the plant early Wednesday morning and was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 2:30 a.m.

Mr. Adams, a switchman in the standard gauge department, apparently was crushed between two cars as an engine pushing a string of cars pushed a string of cars to a company spokesman.

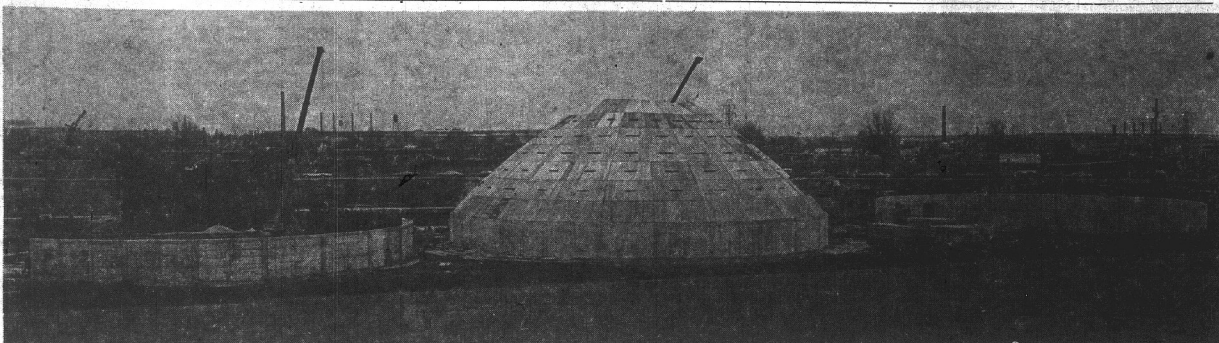

Chester Anderson Jr., conductor on the train, told plant officials that he saw Mr. Adams step between two cars. After the cars were coupled he did not see Mr. Adams reappear and attempted to contact him by radio.

When he was unable to reach him, Anderson reported, he walked to the point where he had seen Mr. Adams, and found his body.

Mr. Adams joined Granite City Steel in 1951, but left there later to serve in the U.S. Marines. He returned as a plant employee in 1955.

A lifelong resident of Granite City, Mr. Adams was employed

LARGE DOME STRUCTURE is seen Tuesday morning at the southern end of the Tri-City Port as the last pieces are set into place by the large crane protruding from the top of the dome. Foundations on either side await similar construction. The three domes will each have a capacity of 7,500 tons of dry fertilizer which will be distributed to Missouri, Central and Southern Illinois. Each dome is 116 feet in diameter and 50 feet high. Triple T. Inc., Vincennes, Ind., owner of the $1.7 million complex, also is to construct three tanks for liquid fertilizers, each with a capacity of 1,000,000 gallons. The company expects its first shipments in early 1978.

George Filcoff associate judge

George Filcoff, city attorney of Granite City since June 1, 1973, and corporation counsel of Madison since Oct. 1, 1971, was named at 2 p.m. Wednesday as an associate judge in the Third Judicial Circuit of Madison and Bond Counties.

Filcoff fills the vacancy in the associate judge ranks created when the Illinois Supreme Court promoted Associate Judge A. Andreas Matosian to Circuit Judge until the November 1978 general election. Matosian replaced Circuit Judge John Gilchoff, who resigned.

Filcoff's appointment was announced by Chief Circuit Judge, Victor J. Mosele, who earlier yesterday announced the unrelated resignation of

Warehouse to close in month

Tri-City Grocery Co. is phasing out its warehouse operations here in favor of a new plan under which Tri-City grocery stores will be serviced by another wholesale grocery distributor, it was confirmed Tuesday.

Between 35 and 40 employees, most of them employees in the warehouse operations, will be affected by the change, according to Sam Pershall Jr., president of the company.

Elimination of the warehouse service to the company's 320 grocery stores will have no effect on other operations of the company, Pershall said.

He noted that about 35 employees of the warehouse have been given severance notices, most of them effective in early December. The changeover is expected to be effected within the next 30 to 60 days.

While it is possible that "a few" office employees may also be dismissed, there is no firm decision in this matter, Pershall said.

Pershall said negotiations are being completed with Super Valu, one of the nation's largest wholesale grocery distributing firms, to service Tri-City's retail grocery stores.

Tri-City Grocery operates stores in Granite City, Venice, Collinsville, Wood River, North Alton, Jerseyville, East Alton, Milton Hill, East St. Louis, Vandalia, Carlinville, Cahokia, Edwardsville, Hazelwood, Mo., Belleville, University City, Mo., Mount Vernon.

Negotiations also are underway to sell to Super Valu the stocks remaining in the warehouse which adjoins the company's offices at 1603 State St.

Super Valu is based at Minneapolis, Minn., and has distributing centers and other outlets throughout the midwest and east. The company supplies 1,750 retail food stores in 22 states from its 11 distribution centers.

Jeffries leading Lights campaign

James J. Jeffries, principal of Webster School and a member of the Salvation Army Advisory Board, has been named chairman of the Salvation Army's 1977 "Tree of Lights" campaign, it was announced Tuesday by Salvation Army Commander Michael Tompkins.

JAMES J. JEFFRIES
Tree of Lights Chairman

Jeffries will head the drive to raise this year's quota of $23,000 to aid the needy at Christmas. Capt. Tompkins said. The quota is $2,000 less than the 1976 drive goal of $25,000.

"I am honored to take part in the Salvation Army's annual 'Tree of Lights' program," Jeffries said. "Our goal of $23,000 can be met only with the enthusiastic support of the citizens of this area."

Weather outlook

Considerable cloudiness and windy today with intermittent snow flurries. Winds 20 to 30 miles per hour and gusting. High in the low 40s. Partly cloudy tonight. Low in upper 20s. Mostly sunny Friday with high in the mid-40s. Clear to partly cloudy Saturday and Sunday with little or no precipitation. Low Saturday and Sunday around 30; highs in the 50s. A little warmer Monday with lows in the 40s and highs in the 60s.

Featuring problem-solving games, the books stress "going forward, not back, to basics." O'Brien explains:

"Back to basics is really back to memory. Memory is necessary, but it's not sufficient. When we imprint children only with specific responses to certain situations, we leave them helpless when a new situation comes along."

His books stress learning to think and solve. Examples are given on Page 36 today.

Powder on autos, flowers

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

Only a dozen spectators attended Tuesday night's regular meeting of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board, despite a recent St. Louis television program which contended lead pollutants in the air are endangering our children.

A large turnout was anticipated at the air board meeting, so its location was changed from the small city offices at 2301 Adams St., to the City Council chambers in city hall.

Despite presentation of a report showing possible dangers from lead levels in the air, prepared by the city's air pollution control technicians, most of the discussion centered around a white powder which has fallen recently on cars and which may be damaging some flowers.

The air pollution technicians said samples of the powder showed it to be a base (the opposite of an acid) and not containing lead. They said they tentatively have identified the source and are attempting to work with industry to correct the problem, but have not received as much cooperation as they had hoped.

One industry refused to allow city air pollution technicians to enter its plant, despite an agreement between the company and the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency allowing inspections.

"They have been using a technically to deny us entry, since the agreement says the city's technical secretary is to be allowed to enter at reasonable times for inspections," Ted Macios, who is the department's technical secretary, explained. Macios only works part-time and is unavailable when some of the problems are reported.

The powder recovered from cars and porches appears similar to powder which was seen in deep "waves" on the roof of one manufacturing facility. Since access to the plant was denied, city air technicians relied on binocular sightings to study the powder and said they could see men on the roof with rakes, raking the

Irwin plans to open new funeral home

Randall A. Irwin, manager of Mercer Mortuary, announced Wednesday he is severing his relationship with that funeral home, effective tomorrow, and will begin redecorating and planning for the Randall A. Irwin Funeral Chapel to open early next year at 2801 Madison Ave.

It currently houses the special education region offices which serve the Granite City, Madison and Venice public schools.

Special education is to move its offices into the new Granite City Township building about Christmas, if the building is ready for occupancy.

Irwin already has started painting the exterior of the building at 2801 Madison Ave. with Ken Harper of Roseman Paint Co. doing the work. The building will be white with black trim.

The new funeral home will be in the building first constructed in 1926 for the E. H. Schildman Funeral Home, which in 1950 became the first John Sedlack Funeral Home.

Irwin already has started painting the exterior of the building at 2801 Madison Ave. with Ken Harper of Roseman Paint Co. doing the work. The building will be white with black trim.

Ground lights shining up onto the building walls all around the building are planned and a canopy will be placed over the entrance.

Irwin also plans a complete remodeling of the interior of the building and hopes to construct a brick wall across the front of the parking lot. Coachlights will highlight all the exterior walls.

He is receiving bids on carpeting, redecorating and other interior work and furnishings. A Collinsville architectural firm

The general public — as well as citizen band radio hobbyists — will pledge funds to the March of Dimes from 6 p.m. Friday, Nov. 11, to 6 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 12.

Telephone numbers that can be called from the Quad-City and Collinsville areas have a 345 prefix and end in 8116, 8890, 8801, 8815, 8955, 8018 and 8750. The way to dial is 345-8116, or any of the other numbers if the line is busy.

In Belleville, the number to call is 233-2700. In Edwardsville, it's 652-2300.

Mrs. Barbara Downing of the Free Spirit React CB Club said many such clubs are cooperating throughout a region of nine counties — Madison, Bond, St. Clair, Calhoun, Clinton, Jersey, Monroe, Randolph and Washington counties. React stands for Radio Emergency Associated Citizens Teams.

Matoesian to run for judge's post

Circuit Judge A. Andreas "Andy" Matoesian of Granite City has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the circuit judgeship he currently holds by appointment.

Matoesian was appointed in September to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Circuit Judge John Gitchoff. He had served as an associate judge 12 years before the appointment.

It appears at least three candidates will vie for the Democratic nomination as circuit judge in the March primary election. William Johnson, a former associate judge, already has announced his candidacy, and William E. Brandt is expected to seek the endorsement of the Madison County Democratic Central Committee later this month. Both practice law in Granite City.

Matoesian said he must deal within the political process until the primary election, but intends to be as non-partisan as possible, if elected. He cites U.S. Supreme Court Rule 61 which states, "A judge should not be swayed by partisan demands, public clamor, consideration of personal popularity or notoriety, nor permit fear or unjust criticism to influence his judicial action."

He is a graduate of Washington University in St. Louis where he received his LL.B. and juris doctor in law degrees. He was born and reared in Granite City. He and his wife have two children.

He is a member of the American Bar Association, Illinois State Bar Association, Madison County Bar Association and Tri-City Bar Association.

New plan resolving income tax problems

IRS' new Problem Resolution Program, established in the Springfield District in April, has provided an effective procedure for handling federal tax problems which could not be resolved through normal channels, in the opinion of Ira S. Loeb, district director.

"The PRP is not a substitute for normal procedures or the tax appeal process, nor is it a substitute for deciding or resolving technical tax questions," he said.

"But if taxpayers have contacted the IRS through usual channels by telephone, or mail, or walk-in and still feel that their problems have not been dealt with properly, they may call or write our problem resolution coordinator."

"The primary function of the coordinator is to resolve taxpayer problems with a minimum delay." Loeb explained that by establishing the Problem Resolution Program the IRS hopes to determine the nature, volume and causes of problems not being satisfactorily resolved through existing channels, and to provide remedial action.

The coordinator may be reached in the IRS district headquarters office at 325 W. Adams St., Springfield 62704 by calling a toll-free number, 800-252-2921.

Hearing delayed in Nameoki vote suit

Chief Circuit Judge Victor J. Moselle yesterday postponed a hearing to determine the status of Mrs. Helen Hawkins in a lawsuit challenging the outcome of the April township election.

A court-ordered recount of the ballots showed Mrs. Hawkins received more votes for trustee than Trustee Jerry Adams, but Moselle dismissed a suit filed on her behalf because it failed to name all the trustee candidates. Another suit naming her was filed by Jerry Boyer, but later was dismissed at Boyer's request. Mrs. Hawkins also had a countersuit filed on her behalf, which was dismissed by Moselle.

A motion to reconsider her status was filed by Attorney H. Carl Runge Jr. and Moselle called for a hearing yesterday on that motion. David Adamson

ARRESTED TWICE

Steve John Hartline, 38, of 3814 Lake Drive, Pontoon Beach, was arrested at 4:20 p.m. Tuesday on a misdemeanor count. He allegedly took a $70 combination radio and tape player from the parked auto of John Selph, 4028 Rode Ave., in the parking lot of Granite City High School North on Monday. Hartline was stopped while driving at 12:10 p.m. Monday and was charged with not having proper license plates.

III, attorney for Jerry Adams, was ill and unable to attend the hearing, so Moselle postponed it. No new date has been set. Moselle said yesterday he has not yet ruled on the winners in the township's supervisor and assessor races. The court recount showed Harold Davis elected by eight votes over the former supervisor, Louis Whitsell, and Assessor Carl Macios re-elected by two votes over Loren Madison.

A luncheon meeting to kick off the annual Tree of Lights campaign will be held at noon on Nov. 29 at a place to be determined later, Jeffries said. The meeting will be hosted by the Granite City Rotary Club.

Jeffries, 36, holds BS and MS degrees from SIUE, having graduated from Granite City High School South in 1959, and for seven years taught civics, American history and social problems at the high school.

He was a Student Council sponsor for five years. He was appointed assistant principal at Grigsby Junior High School for the 1970-71 school year and held that post for five years when he was appointed in 1975 as principal at Webster.

In addition to serving on the Salvation Army Advisory Board he is a past president of the Granite City Jaycees, is a member of the Council of Ministers, Niedringhaus Methodist Church, and a member of the Area PTA Council board. is to plan the interior remodeling.

Irwin said he did not know if the severing of the employment apprentice embler Larry Smith from Mercer Mortuary last week was related to his leaving, but said rumors that Smith will be in business with him are unfounded.

"I will try to run the new funeral home by myself, at least at the start, to try and keep overhead as low as possible. I do not believe you should have to spend a fortune for a funeral. I hope to be able to offer a nice funeral in nice surroundings at a very reasonable cost," Irwin said.

Irwin is a lifelong resident of Granite City and graduated from the public schools here. He attended Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, and graduated from the Indiana College of Mortuary Science, Indianapolis, Ind. Since age 15, he has worked in and around funeral homes, working part-time during high school and college at the Leonard Davis Funeral Home, later working full-time for Davis.

In 1972, he became affiliated with the Smith Funeral Home in Alton and in 1975 started with Mercer.

He has been a Madison County Deputy Coroner since 1968 and is secretary-treasurer of the Madison County Funeral Directors' Association. He also holds membership in the Granite City Rotary Club.

His wife, Linda, is a second-grade teacher at Lake School and has taught here seven years. Irwin plans to complete acquisition of the building from Morris and Charles Chapman next week, but major interior remodeling will not begin until the special education office has moved to the new township building.

Powder

powder from the roof for disposal. The Collinsville office of the EPA was requested to attempt to get samples of the powder for comparison. EPA officials were able to gain entry to the plant where powder samples were taken from the interior of the building.

Those samples were sent to a state laboratory for analysis, but the results had not been received by Tuesday night's meeting, the board was told.

Air Board Chairman Bill Roter explained the thrust of the city's pollution department is to analyze complaints, pinpoint the sources of the pollution and then attempt to halt the discharge of that pollution.

He said the white powder on cars has led to the department issuing orders for removal of "violations" to one local industry. The notices, which allege violation of certain air pollution statutes, demand that the company respond in writing, explaining what actions have been taken to correct the problem.

The company has not responded in writing to either notice, he said. If the company continues to ignore warnings by the city, the board can initiate an enforcement hearing with the Illinois Pollution Control Board.

Filcoff

Associate Judge Merlin Hiscott. Hiscott's successor is yet to be named.

Filcoff's appointment was announced four hours after Judge Moselle announced the resignation of Associate Judge Hiscott of Granite City, effective Dec. 31.

Hiscott was among the first four magistrates appointed in Madison County April 1, 1965, and has served as magistrate and associate judge in all divisions of the circuit, including probate, juvenile, traffic, jury, non-jury and civil. Hiscott, who is 62 years old, cited health reasons for retiring. He noted in his retirement letter to Moselle that he suffered a stroke Feb. 1 which has affected his vision in his left eye and also affects his balance.

He thanked all the circuit and associate judges for their help and friendship during his career and added, "I wish all present and future judges God's wisdom in deciding cases coming before them."

Moselle stated after reading Hiscott's letter, "He will be very hard to replace. He is well respected by the lawyers and judges and is a very well thought of."

Moselle said letters were sent out yesterday to all attorneys in Madison County advising them they have 30 days if they wish to apply for Judge Hiscott's associate judgeship.

After applications are received, ballots will be distributed to the circuit's circuit judges who will ballot on the candidates to determine the new associate judge.

Filcoff also was selected by the associate judges. In addition to his present term as city attorney, he served in that post in 1963 and 1964. He also has served as a hearing officer for the Illinois Department of Revenue since 1965.

He is president of the Tri-City Bar Association and of the Madison County Bar Association. He holds membership in the American Trial Lawyers Association, Illinois Trial Lawyers Association and other professional groups and has been selected a fellow in the American College of Matrimonial Lawyers.

He received his law degree from Washington University in 1957 and was licensed to practice law in Illinois and Missouri that year. He began his practice in Granite City in 1957 and is associated with the law firm of Callis, Schooley and Filcoff Granite City.

He is to assume his new position in early December.

Fischer stated, "Such actions are expensive, and time-consuming. The money is better spent correcting the problems than fighting."

It was noted the last enforcement action the EPA took against one local industry dragged out over a two-year period.

Roter said if the sample of dust taken from the floor of one manufacturing building is analyzed as the same as the powder being reported on cars and porches, the industry will be given a final warning to take immediate corrective actions and a special meeting of the air board will be called to determine whether enforcement actions should be initiated.

Granite City Alderman Charles Douglas, who also is a member of the council's air pollution control committee, said he feels the city attorney should study what powers the city as a home-rule unit may have for demanding entry into local industries for air pollution inspections.

A study city technicians made of lead levels in the air was presented to the board for consideration. The study was released to St. Louis television station last month and resulted in a week-long news feature series which city officials feel was designed to frighten residents of Granite City into thinking they were being poisoned by lead.

The board noted different methods of collecting samples were used by the city technicians, showing a possible lead problem, and by the state study, which showed no unusual levels of lead in the air in Granite City.

Air Pollution Control Engineer Jim Henry said the state used "high volume collections" where vast amounts of air were forced through a filter and the residue on the filter was analyzed.

Henry said the city's study has been "a long term" study which used air monitors, bell measurements and other sources not studied by the state. The board commended the technicians for preparing a good study with a great deal of information which should be studied further.

It also was noted that the city is attempting to establish a blood-testing program to determine if possible health hazards cited in the report are actually affecting Granite City residents.

The air pollution control department was instructed to attempt to correlate the study's results with blood samples taken in the city's program to determine if there is any danger.

Henry said he hopes there will be a large number of blood samples taken, particularly among children who have lived many years in the downtown area of Granite City, so it can be determined without a doubt whether lead here is presenting a hazard.

Macios and Henry are to study the test results further and to return to the board at its regular meeting in January with possible recommendations and suggestions as to whether enforcement actions should be taken.

BULK SERVICE FIRE

An electrical overload in a large circuit box caused a fire which resulted in about $1,000 worth of damage to the circuit box and a small building housing it at the Bulk Service Co. conveyor facility at the Tri-City Regional Port at 8:40 p.m. Monday. Granite City firemen and Bulk Service employees extinguished the fire.

Expect crime report to aid law enforcement

By GARY SCHNEIDER

Press-Record Staff Writer
A consultant's study critical of law enforcement and prosecution in Madison and St. Clair counties was termed "a useful tool for future improvements" during a day-long meeting of the Southwestern Illinois Law Enforcement Commission board of directors yesterday at Collinsville.

SILEC Board President Edward Vonnard of Alton said at a press conference late yesterday that the report has drawn extensive media coverage, much of it critical, but that such a precise pinpointing of law enforcement problems in this area should be useful in alleviating the problems in the future.

"It should be noted that the one-year study was done at the request of SILEC's board of directors and executive director, SILEC called in fire on its own position," Vonnard explained.

"We knew there were problems. The various police departments and county boards knew of some problems. We wanted a study to bring these problems into better focus and perhaps find some we were not aware of. This study has done this and has made some very useful recommendations for correcting them," he added.

Louis H. Knapp of Cresap, McCormick and Page, Inc., which conducted the study, said his task was to decide why the criminal justice system in this area was not working properly and to meet with all officials to get their recommendations how it could work better.

He also studied the effectiveness of Law Enforcement Administration and Illinois Law Enforcement Commission programs in this area since 1970.

SILEC Executive Director John Ellis said:

"I just wonder where crime would be without the LEAA. Crime records were sparse until 1970, but LEAA record keeping then showed crime climbing until 1975. All of a sudden, the crime rate dropped and that drop is continuing into 1977. It may, however, take longer to turn around than I thought."

Ellis said all SILEC's work, including the consultant report, is aimed at meeting the goals of the 1970 Safe Streets Act of Congress.

"Let's try to make the streets safer so we can go to a park and have a picnic at night if we want to. So we can feel safe to go into East St. Louis at night," he added.

Knapp said at first, LEAA programs were designed to aid police. "Police were the easiest to help. They needed front line assistance."

He said that in a number of areas the denial of the luxury of taking time for considerations. Better training and equipment were needed most and the regional mobile training program was, perhaps, one of the best programs they sponsored.

He said that better training and equipping of police led to the number of arrests tripling within a few years, which caused bottlenecks at the investigative and prosecuting areas. Overcrowded prisons complicated the problem further.

"One of our most important jobs in conducting this study was to determine where the bottlenecks were. It indicated future SILEC programs should focus on the improving prosecution."

"The state's attorney's office costs about $2 per person per year in taxes. Police cost about $30. If prosecution can make police more productive, it is a wise investment to give more to the state's attorney's offices," Knapp stated.

He said improving the state's attorney's offices in St. Clair and then Madison County were the top two priorities in recommendations the report made. The third recommendation, and probably the most controversial, is a complete overhaul of the East St. Louis Police Department.

Other recommendations include establishment of central investigative units in each county for major crimes, assisting rural counties with their investigations, consolidating small police forces into larger and better equipped departments, and strengthening probation services, particularly in rural areas.

Ellis said the recommendations will be used by SILEC "as a tool to write a new regional plan on a county-by-county basis by Jan. 31."

"It then will be up to the counties and the various governmental agencies involved to either work toward meeting the recommendations or throw them in the wastebasket. I do not think they will be ignored."

"Counties have the most mandates to provide services. At the same time counties have the most restrictions on how to raise revenues," Ellis said.

One answer may be for each county to hold a referendum on becoming a home-rule county so they can raise more money through taxation to provide better prosecution service. Non-home-rule counties are limited to a tax of 12-cents for each $100 of assessed valuation which brings St. Clair County only $936,000 a year, Ellis explained.

"By the time that is divided up, you have an underbudgeted state's attorney and public defender. We must find efficient ways to pay for these services while the state General Assembly deals with the greater problems of law enforcement," Ellis added.

Responding to criticisms SILEC appears to be abandoning East St. Louis, SILEC Vice-president Victor Canby, who also is chairman of the St. Clair County Board, said more emphasis is to be placed on prosecution than police, but the report contains concrete suggestions for sweeping reforms of the East St. Louis police.

Knapp added that of $7.2 million SILEC has spent in this region, $1.65 million has gone directly to the city of East St. Louis "on programs which have education and medical care. The late President Franklin D. Roosevelt founded the March of Dimes in 1939 and it has fought polio, birth defects and similar physical handicaps.

Coordinating the drive throughout the region is Annamie Peck, executive director for the Metro chapter. Her regional office is at 121A W. Main St., Collinsville.

To help increase public awareness of the 24-hour talkathon starting at 6 p.m. tomorrow, CB club members will broadcast discussions of how the public is backing March of Dimes activities that help unborn and newborn children.

Among the CB channels likely to be used are 3, 5, 7, 12 and 17. CB operators are contributing $1 "entry fees" to meet pledge form printing and telephone costs, in addition to their pledges to the drive.

Contributions to the March of Dimes are tax-deductible. Title of the marathon drive is "entry fees" to meet pledge Band Channel Challenge.

Released on bond

Danny C. Brooks, 30, who gave the St. Clair County Sheriff's department his address as 151 Briarmore Lane, Granite City, was released Wednesday afternoon from the St. Clair county jail on a recognizance bond after he was charged with unlawful use of a weapon and armed violence.

He allegedly forced a woman into his truck following a traffic accident in East St. Louis. A sheriff's deputy allegedly witnessed a man holding a gun to a woman's head in a truck and arrested Brooks.

Canby said studies such as the one done for SILEC are needed to show federal legislators that problems exist. "They are reluctant to continue anti-crime funding at current levels. Someone had to show the need and show that the money received since 1970 has done some good," Canby said.

Knapp cited police training, the Metropolitan Enforcement Group, better police records and a study of the court system as progressive achievements since 1970.

"Since 1970, SILEC did a good job meeting the suggestions of its first study. Now we go to the bottom line — local funding agencies. Hopefully they will pursue the goals of the new study with the same dispatch as the 1970 study," Knapp concluded.

Youth faces 9 charges

James W. Brame, 19, of 2086 Edwardsville Road, Madison, will face nine different charges at an appearance in court today.

At 6:35 p.m. Wednesday, police were called by a family member to 2086 Edwardsville Road where Brame allegedly had kicked in the door. When police arrived Brame reportedly came down the stairs, yelling, and tried to hit a relative.

Police said they had to use force to handcuff him and he allegedly struck and kicked two Madison officers.

While attempting to take Brame into the police station he was abusive and called obscenities at police. Brame reportedly tried to "knock one officer down with his shoulder as he kicked at another and lost his balance, falling on a couch in the police lobby, breaking it.

Brame also allegedly tore up his blanket inside his cell, blocked the plumbing fixtures with the blanket and flooded the cell, police said.

Complaints have been signed charging Brame with two counts of aggravated battery in connection with striking the officers, resisting arrest, destruction of property, disorderly conduct, assault, use of intoxicating compound, as an open container of plastic model cement allegedly was found in his shirt pocket, and two counts of destruction of city property.

Thompson to address Ill. Medical Society at local area meeting

An address by Illinois Governor James R. Thompson will highlight a meeting of the Illinois State Medical Society Saturday and Sunday at the Sheraton-St. Louis Hotel.

President is Dr. George T. Wilkins Jr. of Granite City. The governor will address the opening session of the policy-making House of Delegates — representing the Society's 13,500 members — at noon Saturday. The house then will begin consideration of more than 45 resolutions submitted by individual members and county medical societies.

Resolutions will be debated at reference committee hearings Saturday afternoon, with the house slated to take final action beginning at 9:30 a.m. Sunday.

The Illinois Department of Public Aid's administration of the Medicaid program is expected to be a major focus of delegates deliberations.

The Illinois Supreme Court recently ruled that the department lacks legislative authority to suspend individuals found guilty of Medicaid abuse.

As a result, the state General Assembly is considering several proposals which would grant the department more power to uncover and eliminate fraud.

The Medical Society says it has attempted for the past two years to convince the department that its Medicaid payment and audit rules violated basic rights of patients and providers and caused "enough harassment to drive many honest practitioners out of the program."

Two resolutions before the House of Delegates now urge the society to take legal action to resolve administrative and procedural difficulties said to have led to the current situation.

Other proposals before the house urge the ISMS to:

1. Document areas in which the quality of medical care is compromised by restrictive government health policies.

2. Publicize shortcomings of the public aid and Medicare bureaucracies; and

3. Reinforce its opposition to compulsory, federally-mandated national health insurance, encouraging the American Medical Association to withdraw its support of an AMA-developed national health insurance bill pending in Congress.

The group also will consider a resolution supporting development of a state-provided catastrophic illness and injury insurance plan.

Another proposal encourages the Medical Society to seek legislation for tighter control of handgun vendors.

Keep grinding away those autumn leaves

By WAYNE B. SIEFERT Area Adviser, Horticulture

One problem of lingering fall weather is the gradual leaf drop from nearby trees.

An occasional leaf on the grass may not seem harmful, but it doesn't take many leaves to smother bluegrass.

Frequent mowing is popular with some homeowners to dispose of these leaves. The ground-up leaves become a little extra humus which quickly disappears as the bluegrass grows.

One method of control of wild onions is to pull the clumps and burn them.

Soft ground is the key to success if you try to destroy this pesky onion by pulling. Most large clumps can be easily pulled when the ground is soft, but small clumps will need help.

A garden trowel or fork will loosen the soil enough to release the cluster of onions. When you burn the clumps you can be sure of complete destruction.

Acorns are usually too bitter to be eaten raw, but the Illinois Department of Conservation reports that acorns can be eaten after they have been boiled to remove the tannin. Here is their recipe:

Remove the hull of the nut and boil the kernel in water to remove the bitter-tasting tannin. Each time the water turns brown, it should be replaced. The acorn meat turns dark colored as the tannin is removed.

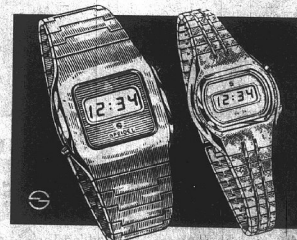

Once the water stops turning brown, the acorns should be dried on a cookie sheet in the oven at a low heat or in the sun.

These boiled meals can be eaten dry or chopped to use as a nut substitute in cookie or sweet bread recipes. Acorns can be candied by dipping them in a sugar glaze made from confectioner's sugar, melted butter, and a little warm water.

William Johnson to file for judgeship

William E. "Bill" Johnson of Edwardsville, who has a law office in Granite City, has announced he will seek the Democratic nomination in the March 21 primary election for circuit judge in the Third Judicial Circuit.

He seeks the position created by the resignation of Circuit Judge John Gitchoff. Associate Judge A. Andreas Maloesian was appointed a circuit judge by the Illinois Supreme Court until the November, 1978, general election.

Johnson, 47, was appointed one of the four magistrates in the circuit in 1965 and served as magistrate and associate judge nearly 12 years.

He served in every division, including juvenile, family court, civil and jury trial, and has been assigned to judge cases at various times in Granite City, Madison, Venice, Alton, Collinsville, Edwardsville, Highland and Wood River. In 1970, he was the county's chief magistrate.

He was born on a farm and his father was a coal miner. His wife, Bernadine, teaches in the Collinsville public schools. They have two daughters.

Johnson worked his way through college during a period of 12 years, graduating from St. Louis University Law School.

He attended Blackburn College, Shurtleff College, Southern Illinois University and Washington University.

He is licensed to practice law in Illinois, Missouri, federal court, tax court and the U.S. Supreme Court.

He has worked as a coal miner, sheet steel worker, Owens-Illinois glass worker, traffic manager, adjuster, U.S. Army paratrooper and teacher of business law at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Johnson says he feels he has been outspoken for judicial reforms and instrumental in equalizing the status of downstate and Cook County judges. He advocates a mandatory jail sentence on a point system for convicted criminals and has initiated innovations and time-saving methods for the judicial system, he feels.

"I have geared my whole life and profession to the judicial position — spending my own funds and using my vacation time for a previous campaign."

"I have always maintained a listed telephone number, answering the need and calls and performing services for the citizens all over the county at my own expense. I now submit myself to the will of the people," Johnson said.

New rules for independents in County Board elections

By HARRY BARNES

Candidates who plan to run as "independents" for County Board seats in the Quad-Cities and Madison County next year will not get any special breaks in filing procedure as they have in previous County Board elections.

County Clerk Evelyn Bowles said this week that under new filing requirements in the 1978 primary election, independent candidates will be required to file nominating petitions during the regular filing period in the same procedure followed by Democratic and Republican candidates.

This is a departure from previous County Board elections in which independent candidates were permitted to file for a place on the November general election ballot after the primary was held. This permitted independents to get their name on the November election ballot without having to file prior to the primary election.

Under new laws, Miss Bowles said, any independent candidate wishing to run for a County Board seat in the November 1978 general election, will have to file petitions during the same filing period that applies to Democratic and Republican candidates.

The filing period for candidates who plan to run for County Board, county or district offices will open Dec. 12 and continue through Dec. 19. County offices subject to election next year are those of sheriff, treasurer, superintendent of the education service region and county clerk.

In the County Board election, Miss Bowles noted, there will be no opportunity for independents to file as board candidates after the primary. Unless they file during the Dec. 12-19 filing period, she said, they will not be on the November ballot.

However, the county clerk explained, independents will not be listed on the March 21 primary ballot even though they file petitions during the regular filing period. Their names will be placed only on the general election ballot in November.

Quad-City voters in the March 21 primary will nominate Democratic and Republican candidates for seven County Board seats.

Districts in which the terms of incumbent board members expire are District 15 which includes part of Chouteau Township, Wayne Bridgewater incumbent; District 16, parts of Chouteau and Nameoki townships, Walter "Dick" Sparks, incumbent; District 18, Granite City, William Webb incumbent.

Also District 20, Granite City.

Nelson Hagauer incumbent; District 21, Granite City, Daniel J. Partney incumbent; District 23, parts of Venice and Granite City townships, Robert Bauder incumbent; District 26, parts of Nameoki and Collinsville townships, Louis Whitsett incumbent.

In District 23, the election of a County Board member will be for a two-year term. Bauder was appointed earlier this year to fill a vacancy created by the death of the late Jay Maurer of Venice, who had been re-elected in 1976. This leaves two years of the term remaining and is subject to election.

Legal advice aids home improvements

(Illinois State Bar Association)
The fuel crisis and the boom in insulation inspired by the need to cut down on large fuel bills may bring with it its share of unscrupulous home improvement contractors seeking to sell insulation jobs to the public.

There are some legal steps to take to protect yourself from shoddy work or from paying more than the amount you agree upon both for insulation jobs and all other types of home improvements.

For one thing, you should know something about the law of liens, and the best place to get advice on that point is from your lawyer. All too often, people will sign a substantial home improvement contract, perhaps running into thousands of dollars, while giving little thought to the legal aspects of real estate property improvements.

One of those legal aspects is the Mechanics' Lien Act, a law which gives any worker who makes improvements and each supplier of material used in the improvements to your property, the right to file a lien, or claim, against that property if full payment for services or materials is not made.

If necessary, anytime within two years after the work was done, presuming that the lien was properly filed with the county recorder, the lien holder may foreclose the lien and perhaps, force the sale of the property so that the bill will be paid from the proceeds.

In 1975, a new law was passed specifically to protect home owners who own single-family, owner-occupied residences. Your lawyer can advise you of all the protections which this law contains.

Most homeowners, of course, think of hiring a contractor and paying for the work when it is done as a rather cut and dried affair. And, since most home improvement contractors are perfectly reliable people, it is usually just that. However, there is always the exception. Take the case of a woman who wrote a check to the contractor for the full amount of the remodeling and redecorating work on her home, quite honestly presuming that payment of several thousand dollars ended the matter.

Much to her surprise, a short time later she received a notice from the electrical subcontractor advising her that he had not been paid for his part of the job.

To keep him from filing a lien on her property, she paid the electrical subcontractor's bill, even though her check to the contractor had covered his work.

Of course, the woman sued the contractor in an effort to recover the amount of her overpayment. But had she sought the advice of her lawyer in the first place, she would have been spared the trouble and the extra expense.

Her lawyer would have stressed these important points:

1. Require the contractor to give you an affidavit — a notarized statement — which lists the names of all the subcontractors, their addresses and the amounts of their subcontracts.

2. Before paying the contractor, ask for waivers from subcontractors waiving their rights to any liens in connection with the work that was done and containing waivers of lien from their material suppliers.

3. Compare the contractor's sworn statements to the waivers to be sure that all liens have been waived as to the amounts due or requested.

That, of course, isn't the full extent of the legal advice about home improvements. A lawyer also would instruct a client as to protections against shoddy workmanship, work left undone, use of inferior materials or unnecessarily protracted work schedules.

In most cases, adequate guarantees can and should be written into the contract which, especially if it is a sizeable one, should be examined by the lawyer if not actually prepared by a lawyer.

A lawyer will also give advice as to the timing and amounts of payment so that you can obtain sufficient funds at the end of the job to insure that it is done properly and to protect yourself against unpaid bills. The smaller the down payment, the more protection the homeowner has.

GC schools to mark Education Week

Granite City public schools will observe American Education Week in a series of open house programs, parent-teacher conferences and other events, starting Monday, Nov. 14, and continuing through Friday, Nov. 18.

Officially, American Education Week opens Sunday, Nov. 19, but school programs will be conducted throughout the week during regular school days.

One exception to this will be an open house program planned at South High School from 6:45 to 8:45 p.m. on Nov. 22. Most of the programs next week are scheduled on Thursday, Nov. 17.

American Education Week was established after draft boards discovered during World War I that about 25 per cent of the young men called for military service were illiterate and about 25 per cent were physically unfit.

The conditions led members of the American Legion to commission the then newly-formed American Legion to consult in 1917 with officers of the National Education Association (NEA) and the officials of the U.S. Office of Education about launching an educational campaign to correct such deficiencies.

A series of conferences began on a regular basis in 1919 which resulted in a plan for an annual nationwide observance of American Education Week.

The 1977 theme is "Working Together for Education" and the purpose of the week is to get the public to reaffirm its commitment to improving education at all levels and to translate that commitment into action by visiting local schools.

Activities scheduled at the schools include:

North, Nov. 16, 7 to 8 p.m. open house; South, Nov. 22, 6:45 to 8:45 p.m. open house; Coolidge, Nov. 18, 7 to 8 p.m. open house (vocal and band rehearsal and other activities).

Grigsby, Nov. 15, 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. open house; Frasier, Nov. 15, 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. open house; Emerson, Nov. 16, 7 to 8 p.m. room visitation; Frohardt, Nov. 15, 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. open house; Johnson, Nov. 16, 9 to 11:15 a.m. open house; Nov. 17, 1 to 2:45 p.m. open house.

Isky, Nov. 17, 8:45 to 9 p.m. Parent visitation during the day, lunch with the students; Logan, Nov. 17, open house during school hours; McKinley, Nov. 17, open house during school hours; Marshall, Nov. 17, 7 to 8 p.m. open house; Maryville, Nov. 17, open house during the day; Mitchell, Nov. 17, 7 to 8 p.m. room visitation, also book fair, bazaar, bake sale; Namoki, Nov. 15, 7 to 8 p.m. open house. Breakfast on Nov. 16, Teacher Appreciation. Parents may visit all week.

Niedringhaus, Nov. 17, 6 to 8 p.m. chili supper, open house 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.; Parkview, classroom visitation was held Nov. 8; Pre-School, Nov. 16, open house during the day; Stallings, Nov. 17, PTA meeting at 7 p.m., open house, room visitation, 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.; Washington, Nov. 15, 7 to 8 p.m. room visitation; Webster, Nov. 17, 7 to 8 p.m., room visitation, lunch during week with students; Wilson, open house was held on Oct. 18.

Boards to study how to fund added work with handicapped

How can Illinois school districts pay for expensive new services required by state and federal governments? That question is expected to receive more attention than any other when school board members gather in Chicago Nov. 19 to 21 for the 63rd annual conference of the Illinois Association of School Boards.

Voting delegates from more than 800 school districts are expected to give load approval to resolutions demanding help. One resolution asks the federal government to pay the full cost of schooling for handicapped children.

"New federal law requires that Illinois schools extend services to more than 100,000 handicapped youngsters not now being served," says Harold P. Seamon, IASB executive director.

"We estimate the cost to schools at $100 million a year—and that is money that can be raised only by cutting out programs for other students. "The feeling among most school boards is that, if the federal government is going to require certain services, then the federal government should pay the cost."

A second resolution expected to receive strong support among conference delegates deals with the cost of unemployment insurance benefits.

"New state-federal requirements may cost Illinois schools more than $20 million a year," Seamon contends. "Again, schools can pay this cost only by eliminating other costs or raising taxes."

More than 6,000 school board members are to attend the IASB conference at Chicago's Palmer House. The meeting is jointly sponsored by the Illinois Association of School Administrators and the Illinois Association of School Business Officials.

In addition to debating a variety of public policy issues, participants will hear speakers and attend panel sessions on critical school problems.

Major speakers for the three-day meeting include Governor James Thompson, State Superintendent of Education Joseph M. Cronin, the Rev. Jesse Jackson, who is founder and national president of Operation PUSH, Thomas Shannon, executive director of the National School Boards Association, and Nicholas Johnson, a former member of the Federal Communications Commission and longtime critic of the broadcasting industry.

Panel discussions will cover such topics as student discipline, teacher tenure, career education, the open meetings law, collective bargaining and strikes, school board ethics, public opinion, superintendent of the school, and declining enrollments.

School officials also will view nearly 100 exhibits of the latest school equipment, supplies and services.

Debate courts' expanded role

Raoul Berger, author of "Government by Judiciary," will join William F. Buckley Jr. on WSIE's "Firing Line" Sunday, Nov. 13, at 5:30 p.m. WSIE-FM (88.7) is the radio station on the SIUE campus.

Attorney Harriet Pipel will join the discussion as an examiner who questions the topics and ideas set forth by Berger and Buckley.

Berger has said the Supreme Court's use of the Fourteenth Amendment has disregarded the intentions of the amendment's framers. He says the three clauses of the amendment—privileges or immunities, due process of law, and equal protection under the laws—are designed merely to describe and implement those rights, not to give the court state control of criminal and civil administration.

He also says that the court was not empowered to rewrite the constitution; it was specifically barred from policy making.

He adds that no matter how humane or justifiable its purpose, the court should not assume unconfessed powers. He says the Supreme Court has taken over the criminal legislation of the states, and does not have the power to revise the constitution.

Harriet Pipel contends that if the legislature had the last word on the constitution, many minorities would suffer. She says that Berger had "dug a deep hole and fallen into it" by feeling that we are bound by what framers of the constitution would have understood words to mean 200 years ago. She says, "The greatness of our constitution is that it is an elastic document."

Warriors begin state tourney play tomorrow

RUNNING to this weekend's state soccer tourney are the GCHS South soccer Warriors. Here, David Goldschmidt (right) leads the charge onto the field prior to the sectional championship game against Collinsville.

(Press-Record Photo by Pete Hayes)

By PETE HAYES

Press-Record Sports Editor
"I'm sorry we have to play them in the first game. I think that we're probably the two best teams up there, and one of us is going to have to go home a loser."

That's how Granite City South head soccer coach Gene Baker summed up his feelings about his team's game tomorrow against New Trier East of Winnetka in the quarterfinals of the state high school soccer championship.

Baker could be right. His team, ranked as the best in the state for most of this season, goes into the game sporting a 15-0-3 Illinois record (Missouri games don't count with the IHSA). New Trier is 15-1-2.

"There is one 'plus' to playing them first, though," he added. "If we win, we have the best times available to play on Saturday."

What Baker refers to is the fact that the winner of the South-New Trier East game will come back and play the winner of the Gordon Tech-Wheaton Central Friday clash at 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

"After that we'd have the Big sendoff for Warriors; reception set for Sunday

There was a big sendoff for the South Warrior soccer team this morning.

Hundreds of members of the student body, along with the pep band, gathered around the team's chartered bus outside Memorial Gymnasium. They sent the Warriors off to DeKalb and the 1977 IHSA state soccer playoffs.

The team is set to play at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the second game of the first session at Huskie Stadium on the campus of Northern Illinois University.

A reception has already been planned for the Warrior kickers Sunday afternoon, win or lose or draw," according to South Assistant Principal Ken Spalding.

The time for the reception is approximately 3 p.m., but the actual time will not be known until the team leaves DeKalb Sunday morning.

When the time for the reception is known, radio station WGVD will broadcast it during the afternoon programming.

They're capable of being a much different team up there," said Baker. "We'll be playing in the Chicago area and it's a much different ball game once you get up there."

New Trier East hopes to isolate Greg Feigl and Mark early September trip down south.

"We let the opposition sort of guess what exact style we're gonna use."

"YOU'VE GOT TO BE IMPRESSED with South," added Shinto. "We're the defending champs and have just about everybody back from last year. No doubt about it, they're a super ball club."

"But we won't change anything now... it's too late for that. We scored 75 goals with the system we use and aren't going to change horses in the middle of the stream."

It might be more like a river tomorrow.

Goldschmidt against two of its top players, Dan Butler and David Dickey. But Baker has other ideas.

"We'll try and set up some mismatches," he said. "You know, Dickey sets up against Greg, he'll (Greg) just move over and take another player."

"We've done it in the past and it's worked. If they go over and double-team him, it'll leave the whole right side of the field open for Goldschmidt."

INJURIES have plagued the Warriors all season, the least of which isn't the torn cartilage to David Goldschmidt's right knee.

"It's kind of a game-by-game thing with Dave's knee," said Baker. "Playing on the Astorlurf there won't be any help to it, either. He could easily jam it."

"Saturday could be especially tough on it because there's the possibility of playing two games in one day. I hope that the first game Saturday would be an easy one so that we could give him some rest."

How about that Astorlurf? "I should help our style of play," said Baker. "I think the guys will really enjoy playing on it."

The Warriors haven't played on Astorlurf in a little over two years. How will they make the adjustment?

"We'll be stopping in Bloomington on the way up (today) to work out for about an hour or so on the Astorlurf at Illinois State. That should get us used to it a little more."

LOOKING BACK at the pairings, one notices that there are two teams still alive which were totally dominated by North and South this season, and one which was clobbered by Collinsville — Shurz. Sound fair?

There are seven teams from the Chicago area and one from somewhere else... South.

"It's done by population right now," Baker said. "But it's certainly not fair. The Chicago area schools have a round robin affair whereby points are allotted (like the football playoffs)."

For instance, New Trier knew they were going to the state finals last Friday and their coaches were down here watching us, and they hadn't even played the championship game of their sectional yet.

New Trier East's Shinto: "We'll pray a lot."

By PETE HAYES

Press-Record Sports Editor

For New Trier East soccer coach Tony Shinto, it's been a season remarkably like that which South mentor Gene Baker has just gone through.

He went through an impressive year and only lost one game... Just like South. It was in his cross-town rival, New Trier West. Granite City North gave South two of its toughest games of the season.

"OUR GAME is a lot like South's," said Shinto yesterday. "The only real difference is that our scoring is spread out more."

What Shinto is referring to is the fact that four of his Indian kickers are in double figures in scoring. Striker Tom Williams leads the team with 20, Midfielder Dan Butler has 17, Burt Sullivan has 13, and Kirk Culpe 11.

The Indians will have to try to control a potent South offensive machine which has produced a new single-season scoring record and has two players over the 30-goal mark.

Greg Feigl has pounded the nets for 37 goals this season to set the new mark and Mark Goldschmidt has 34 tallies.

"PRAY A LOT," said Shinto. "Seriously, I feel that we've got a guy here who's gonna give Feigl all he can handle."

The player referred to by Shinto is David Dickey. He earned Midwest all-American honors last season, but was slowed down in the early part of this season with mononucleosis.

"He's not as big as Feigl," said Shinto, "but he's solid as a rock."

What about the rest of the Warriors' scoring attack? "You can't really key on one player," added Shinto. "Because if you do, one or two other players are right there to take up the slack."

"Both of the Goldschmidts (Mark and David) are good ball players," said Shinto. "I've seen them play before. No doubt about it, they know what it's all about out there on the field," said Shinto. "We finished in a threeway tie on records with Deerfield and Evanston. But we had that loss to West and Evanston beat Deerfield during the season, so we ended up in third place.

What about the style of play up north compared to the Granite City area?

"In the city proper, they play very rough soccer," said Shinto. "But out here in the suburbs, we play a smarter style."

State cross country meets set for Saturday...

Baker running in Class AA; Lebanon favored in Class A

The respective class defending champions, Deerfield and Lebanon, rate as the teams to beat when athletes from 28 Class AA schools and 20 Class A schools converge on the three-mile course at DeWitt Park in Peoria Saturday for competition in the 32nd annual Illinois High School Association (IHSA) Boys' State Cross Country Meet series.

The Class A race (for runners from schools with enrollments of 750 or less) will begin at 10 a.m. The Class AA race (for runners from schools with enrollments of 751 or more) will be at 11:30 a.m.

Award ceremonies at host Peoria (High School) in the gymnasium will begin at noon for Class A and 1:30 p.m. for Class AA.

Lebanon captured its own sectional with 45 points and is expected to be challenged for team honors by Elmwood, Coach Ira Price's Greyhounds won the title last year with 96 points and Winnebago was runnerup with 39.

Lebanon's roster includes seniors Victor Burns, Jeff Lee and Chuck Rutherford, junior Terry Fruppen, sophomores John Atkinson and Victor Dagner and freshman Jon Guthrie.

Deerfield, the Crystal Lake sectional winner with a staggering 30 points, took the state title last fall with 111. Perennial power Elmhurst (York) and Glen Ellyn (Glenbard West) rate as the top challengers to Coach Len Kissell's outstanding stable of distance throwers.

Five seniors, led by the McCallister twins, Todd and Mark, form the nucleus of the Deerfield contingent, which may challenge the all-time point record of 21 set by Urbana back in 1951. The Deerfield crew includes seniors Todd and Mark McCallister, Keith Hampton, Dane Rutstein and Greg Less, junior Tom Stevens and sophomore Craig Bauer.

GRANITE CITY NORTH's star runner, Mike Baker, who has won the 30 individual from teams which failed to qualify who will be entered in the state Class AA meet.

He finished fourth in last Saturday's Springfield sectional meet.

Besides Baker, other runners from Southern Illinois who will be entered will be Bob Weismaster of Belleville West, the Springfield sectional winner; Nick Westlake of Mt. Vernon; and Perry Sager from Olney (East Richland), winner of the Central District and third-place finisher at the recent sectional, two seconds ahead of Baker.

Two area teams will be entered, Belleville East and East St. Louis Senior.

While the Class AA team spotlight may be on Deerfield, the individual spotlight will be on senior Tom Graves of Orland Park (Sandburg), who seeks to become only the fifth runner to win back-to-back titles.

Graves won last fall in 14:08.5 and could become the third individual to break the 14-minute barrier. Those who have are all-time standout Craig Virgin of Lebanon and Dave Walters of New Lenox (Lincoln-Way).

BESIDES LEBANON, there are three other Southern Illinois schools sending teams to the Class A meet. They are Effingham St. Anthony, Robinson and Fairfield.

Four area individuals qualified for the meet. They are: Mark Capelle from Highland (St. Paul), Brad Madue of Breese Manor Dei, Rick Williams of DuQuoin and Tom Spears from Staunton.

Sellmeyer to state, too

The South Warriors aren't the only ones from the Quad-Cities who will be making the trip to DeKalb this weekend for the state soccer tournament.

John Sellmeyer, director of the foreign language department at South, will also be traveling up... to be a field official for the third time in the six-year history of the state soccer tournament.

Sellmeyer, who lives in Venice, has worked more state tournaments than any other official. However, according to the IHSA, "He will not work any of South's games" at DeKalb.

There had been a tentative assignment sheet sent out, but after the pairings were drawn for the teams, it was discovered that there was a Gordon Tech official working that school's game and a Wheaton Central official working its game.

Therefore, complete changes had to be made in the game assignments.

Besides Sellmeyer, there will be five other officials working the seven-game tourney. The six have a combined total of 54 years of officiating at soccer competition.

Steelerstake on West Frankfort

The North football Steelers will take to the road tomorrow night to end what has definitely been an up-and-down season.

They travel to West Frankfort to take on the Red Birds, who stand at a dismal 2-7. They were picked by Little Egypt football prognosticators to finish second in the South Seven Conference, but have lost seven straight games since winning their first two contests.

West Frankfort is a team dominated by juniors. In fact, only one senior is on the starting offensive team. He's halfback Eric Shostrom.

The Red Birds' seven game losing streak was started back on the third week of the season by another Steeler foe of this year, Mt. Vernon.

The Rams easily handled West Frankfort, 22-7, North defeated Mt. Vernon in double-overtime 21-14 the very next week.

The Steelers of North, meanwhile, will be trying to salvage a 5-0 season. They lost their second overtime game of the year, 17-14 last Saturday in their homecoming game with St. Mary's of St. Louis.

North keeps Shells from playoffs?

Even though they would have liked to have come out of their homecoming game a winner, North's grid Steelers did accomplish something when they lost that overtime thriller to St. Mary's. They kept Roxana out of the playoffs.

How'd they do that? you may ask.

It's simple... if you're a mathematical genius.

Roxana finished the season with just one loss, a 10-5 verdict to Mascoutah in the second game of the season. Included in the wins was a 10-7 victory over the Steelers back on Sept. 30.

For each win over a team won a winning record, a school receives 24 points; for each loss, six points; and for each tie, three points. The Steelers have a team below .500, 8 points. It was the St. Mary's loss that dropped the Steelers below .500.

For each win over a team won a winning record, a school receives 24 points; for each loss, six points; and for each tie, three points. The Steelers have a team below .500.

Tom Wronoski and his staff at North probably have a lot of sympathy for Roxana.

Those points thus become critical for the Shells. They were tied with Geneseo on records. Both finished 8-1.

They then had to go to the points system to see which school would go to the playoffs. Geneseo had 125 points when all was tabulated. Roxana had 118.

So the team that made it to the semifinals of last year's playoffs and had a seven-game winning streak this year will not be involved in "November madness" after all the anxious waiting by Roxana coach Charles Raich.

"I'm really disappointed, but we have to accept it," said Raich. "We really had our hopes up."

Tom Wronoski and his staff at North probably have a lot of sympathy for Roxana.

She feels 'privileged'

Freshman Beth Wyatt of Granite City feels "privileged" to be a starter on the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville women's field hockey team. She has provided the Cougars with four goals.

"I'm really surprised at myself — getting that many goals. I guess they were just luck," she related. "I just happened to be there at the right time to score the goals," she continued.

Four goals for any one forward might not be too unusual, but Wyatt played fullback all four years in high school (GOHS South). SUUE Coach Cindy Jones wanted somebody aggressive and one who could move the ball well, so Wyatt got the job. "It scared me at first, but I got over it," Miss Wyatt explained.

"I like playing forward, better. As a fullback, you have more responsibility and pressures. A forward has responsibilities, of course, but not as much. We also have the chance to score all the time."

The Granite City native likes college field hockey better than at the high school level. "It's much freer in college. The practices are harder and more often, but it's worth it."

Because of her age and relative inexperience, she feels she doesn't have the right to comment on the play of the older players. "I'm glad they tell me what I'm doing wrong, because I know I need help."

Constructive criticism is important, according to the freshman. "I think the team is playing really well together. The defense is there when we need them, and they're doing a good job."

"One thing that is important is you can't get aggravated at your team members. On the field, other teams yell at their players and they seem to fall apart. We don't do that, which I'm glad of," she said.

In a recent game against St. Louis University, one of the players was injured over the eye. "It really scared me," said Miss Wyatt. "I was right there, and I fell down with her. I started shaking violently ... really bad."

"It could have happened to any player on either team. After that, we kept our eye out a little better, so it wouldn't happen to us," she related.

One thing she isn't too happy about is the amount of coverage women's sports get. "Women's sports are growing, and it discourages me to see maybe only one paragraph on who while the guys get a whole page. It's getting better, though," she said.

She is grateful to the team members and coaches for helping her. "All the girls were really friendly when I went out for the team, so I didn't feel left out," she explained.

The future of SIUE's field hockey team looks bright with promising players like Beth on the team, the coach predicts.

Young equestrienne earns four ribbons

Young equestrienne Carolyn Heath, 14, captured one first place, two second places and one third place ribbon during the weekend at the Rolling Acres Horse Show near Belleville.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip (Shirley) Heath, 2326 St. Bernard Ave. Carolyn competed in the 13-through-16-year-old class, and has only been riding since summer.

The competition was English style horsemanship. She won her first-place blue ribbon and silver platter in the intermediate jumping contest.

Second-place ribbons were earned in the walk-trot-canter and beginner jumping, and third in the walk-trot division.

The future of Granite soccer...

The scene is a familiar one. It's Saturday afternoon. Cars are jammed around the athletic field. Mothers and fathers are shouting words of encouragement to their sons and words of disdain to the officials. A Little League baseball game? In most other towns, yes. But in Granite City, it's a typical Saturday afternoon of YMCA soccer.

Granite City has what many observers feel is one of the best lower-level soccer programs in the country. The kids playing on the Saturday afternoon in question are little boys... VERY little boys. Some stand just about three feet tall. They're members of the Junior Pee Wee League of "Y" soccer, about six years old.

The kids take it very seriously. But at times, it seems that they have more trouble keeping their sleeves pulled up and their "droopy drawers" up than anything else.

BUT it's from players like this that come the future Steelers or Warriors. And someday maybe the future Cougars or Billikens.

There are many different age groups involved in Granite City YMCA soccer... Pee Wees (junior and senior), the Atomos (junior and senior), Bantams (junior and senior) and Midgets (junior and senior).

Also involved are the parents and coaches who spend countless hours of their time helping to build the foundation for what is regarded as one of the finest soccer programs in the United States.

"They all started out right here."

PHOTOS: Right, Little Tom Andrews can barely see from under his cap, but he still gets a good follow-through. Below, Christopher Andrews (no relation) "booms" one in warm-ups. Cougars end regular season

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville's field hockey team suffered a disappointing end to its 1977 season by losing three games in the Illinois state tournament held at Carbondale during the weekend. The Cougars finished the season with a record of 8-7-3.

In the tournament opener for SIUE, the Cougars lost to Illinois State University, 3-1. Freshman Amy Frey scored, bringing her season total of goals to five, considering an outstanding show for a beginner.

In the second game of the day, SIUE lost to Eastern Illinois University in overtime, 2-1. Senior Jo Brooks, high scorer for the Cougars with six goals, tallied the Cougars' lone goal. SIUE, the next day was defeated by Western Illinois University, 4-0. "Actually, it was an anticlimactic game since we were already out of the running in the tournament," Coach Cindy Jones commented.

Coach Jones expressed disappointment over her team's performance: "we could have done better, but we had to play on astroturf, which we've never done before."

SIUE at Carbondale, the No. 1 seed of the tourney, was the eventual winner of the rain-delayed tournament, defeating Eastern, 4-1. SIUE captured third place in last year's state tournament, ending with a record of only four victories, ten losses and five ties.

Other top scorers for this season were: freshman Beth Wyatt, four; sophomore Carol Dappert and junior Jane O'Laughlin, three each; and junior Kathy Going, two.

Senior goalie Sharon Frey had a sensational season, posting seven shutouts in the team's eight victories. The defense was bolstered all season with performances by fullbacks Mary Weidner, Debbie Meehan, Nancy Shulte and Laura Gruber, and halfbacks Brenda Schrage, Jane O'Laughlin, Cindy Leavens and Melody Wallace.

The Cougars will participate in a post-season tournament this weekend in Michigan.

Rascals start playoffs this weekend

Two of the four Granite City Rascals boys' tackle football teams finished the regular season schedules as division champions of their respective Tri County Junior Football Conferences and will begin playoff activity this weekend. A third Rascals team will play host to a visiting team from Hammond, Ind.

A DOUBLEHEADER is on tap here this Saturday at the South High School field.

The main event will be a 2 p.m. contest between the first-place Rascals Midget North team and the second-place Belleville Knights. Both teams finished the season with identical 8-1 records. The winner will advance to the playoff final against the winner of the Belleville Devils Number 2 versus Number 3 game.

In the first Saturday afternoon clash, the Rascals Pee Wee team will play the Hammond team at 12.

Until last weekend, the Rascals Pee Wees were in a three-way tie for first place in their division with Belleville and Cahokia but were knocked out of the playoffs by losing to the Knights last Sunday, 16-6.

The Rascals Junior Pee Wee North team took first place in its division with an 8-1 record and will play its first playoff game at Belleville against the Knights' Number 1 team Sunday at 1:45 p.m. The winner will play the winner of the Dupo-Knights No. 2 clash.

The Granite City Junior Pee Wee South squad also finished with a winning record with a 5-4 slate, good for fourth place in its division.

Bob Patrick, president of the Granite City Rascals, is urging the parents, families and friends of team members to help cheer for the Granite City teams this weekend.

Patrick said that the group from Hammond will number about 20 and the Belleville Knights may bring as many as 1,000 fans to support their teams.

Father Fryntzko of Alaska visits Quad-City area

By MICK STRANGE
Press-Record Staff Writer

Father Theodore Fryntzko, pastor of St. Michael's Cathedral in Sitka, Alaska, and six other parishes in the Aleutian Islands, is visiting friends and family this week in the Quad-Cities.

Father Fryntzko is one of the six sons of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dimitry Fryntzko, who was reared in Granite City. He was a member of the Nativity of the Virgin Mary Eastern Orthodox Church in Madison.

As a youth, he attended McKinley elementary and Granite City High School.

All six brothers were former Press-Record paper boys and Father Fryntzko commented Wednesday, "No one took better care of their paper routes than the Fryntzko brothers."

He has been attending the fifth all-American Council of the Orthodox Church in America that met in Montreal where Bishop Theodosius, a former Madisonian, was elected as the new primate of the church.

Father Fryntzko was ordained April 7, 1967, in the Madison church by Archbishop John.

A member of the Juneau, Alaska, Lions Club, Father Fryntzko hopes to visit the Madison Lions Club meeting today.

Based in Juneau, the area he serves for his church extends over 2,000 miles in the Aleutian Islands, an archipelago extending southwest from the Alaska peninsula.

Due to the distance, he must visit most of his seven churches by air.

Father Fryntzko takes a boat for 12 hours from Adak to his church in Atka. Once at the Atka parish he must remain for a full month until the boat returns to the island.

St. Michael's in Sitka is a national historic site. It was built in 1847 and was the first Eastern Orthodox Cathedral in the New World.

THEODORE FRYNTZKO
Alaskan Priest

The cathedral recently was destroyed by fire, but was restored in 1976 through contributions sent in from all parts of the world, according to Father Fryntzko.

They had enough points to win it even if they'd lost Saturday (which they didn't). "THE SOLUTION?" "Perhaps some sort of a round-robin deal for the entire state tourney," said Baker. "It'd surely give schools like North and Collinsville, for instance, a chance even if they lose a game or two."

Patchworkers earn achievement awards

A NEW TWIST can create futuristic side chignons, area hairdressers and cosmetologists report. Longer hair is popular for this fall and winter, and twist variations can create chignons, a Juliet cap or the romantic, asymmetrical look. The hairdressers describe twisted hair as a natural and simple way to decorate coiffures during the holiday period.

The Patchworkers 4-H Club discussed awards they received at Achievement Night held in Edwardsville, during a monthly meeting last week.

Members met at St. Elizabeth Church hall with Mary Loftus, president, presiding.

Mrs. Carole Kessler and Mrs. Martha Melroy, leaders, distributed the awards to the club members.

The club was given a seal indicating they were an Achievement Club, last year. Joan Krystofa earned the "food and nutrition" medal and certificate given by General Foods Corp., for a demonstration on cornbread.

Wendy Melroy was the recipient of a medal for public speaking provided by Union Oil Co. of California. The state outstanding club member medal and certificate, from ARA Services, Inc., was presented to Debbie Burnett.

Demonstration certificates were earned by Mary Loftus in Art Media; Michelle Loftus in Carving Leather and Ginny Little for a demonstration on "sugar by degrees."

Christina Kessler, Joan Krystofa, Mary Loftus and Sue Burnett received the County Outstanding 4-H Member award and a State Outstanding 4-H Member award went to Wendy Melroy. County project honor member awards were given to Karen Toussaint in clothing and Michelle Loftus in arts and crafts. Junior leaders certificates were presented to Joan Krystofa, Wendy Melroy and Debbie Burnett.

Other honors included state project honor 4-H member awards to Sue Burnett in clothing; Patti and Linda Grebel in sports; Mary Loftus in art; Debbie Burnett in crocheting and Christina Kessler, Ann Fuller, Joan Krystofa and Wendy Melroy in foods.

To open the meeting Janet Jachino led the 4-H pledge and Christina Kessler led the pledge to the flag. Roll call was recorded by Christina Kessler as members responded by telling "how I dressed for Halloween."

Wendy Melroy gave a demonstration on "How Not to Give a Demonstration" by making a peanut butter sandwich and Mary Loftus gave the same demonstration, showing how to do it correctly.

Patti Grebel, recreation chairman, led the group in a game and refreshments were served by Karen and Christy Toussaint and Mary Loftus.

Others present were Paula Bills, Karrie Frazier, Colleen Powell and Karl Winters. The next meeting will be at 7 p.m. on Dec. 1 at the St. Elizabeth Hall.

59th anniversary of The Gospel Mission

The 59th anniversary of The Gospel Mission, 204 E. 20th St., was attended by over 200 people including many former members.

Dr. Robert E. Sabo, pastor of the Melvin United Methodist Church of Melvin, Ill., and a native of Granite City, delivered the anniversary sermon. He graduated from the local high school and attended college and a seminary in Georgia where he received his D.D. and Ph.D. degrees. His wife, Martha, and two children also attended the observance at the "church behind the mill."

The Mission, which is non-denominational, was founded by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carson in their home, for the children who resided in the area. Mrs. Bethel Davis continued the work at the mission and has served as superintendent since her husband died in 1927.

Mrs. Davis opened the afternoon ceremony with the pledge to the Bible and to the Christian and American flags. Special music was led by John Sabo of Granite City, who also sang a solo and prayer was offered by the Rev. Carroll Thomas of Sauget, Ill.

A welcome was extended to guest ministers who served the Mission through the years and to their wives who were present including the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas, the Rev. and Mrs. Everett Hopkins and the Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Limberg, all of Maryville.

Mrs. Davis announced Dr. George A. Rosenthal, who has served the Mission on various occasions for 35 years, was ill and unable to attend. She added the Rev. John Pithers, also a former minister, is presently in the nursing home service and could not attend.

Other musical selections were by Mrs. Everett Hopkins and Miss Elaine Bauer accompanied by Steve Ripking and a trio from Tri-City Park Tabernacle Pentecostal Church, Don Hayes, Michael Hildreth and Royce Meyenburg.

Reminiscences were also offered by the Rev. Charles Williams, superintendent of the Sunshine Mission, St. Louis, and the Rev. S. S. Basore, evangelist with the Pentecostal Herald, a church publication.

Mrs. Mildred Branding announced a holiday potluck luncheon will be held on Dec. 1 at the church with Mrs. Helen Pfeiffer serving as chairman.

A report on World Community Day and other programs of the Church Women United was given by Mrs. Ellen Ehlert.

During the morning session members worked on items for the Hitz Memorial Home in Alabama followed by a noon luncheon served to 38 members.

The president closed the meeting with the Least Coin meditation.

Two bids for police cars were opened.

One bid was by "Bo" Beachman Ford on two LTD II Fords at $6,675, plus trade-ins, and from Nixon Buick for two LaSabers at $8,165 plus trade.

The bids were referred to the police committee and chief of police for further study and recommendation.

Mexican cuisine offered

Tio's Restaurant and Lounge in the Crossroads Shopping Center opened during the weekend at a grand opening ceremony.

Offering a complete Mexican cuisine, Tio's is owned and operated by Mrs. Harold (Dolores) Broyles of Granite City.

The family-style establishment offers authentic Mexican recipes surrounded by peasant costumes, stuccoed walls and arches reminiscent of Old Mexico, the owners said. A mural of a monastery in Mexico City and an Aztec calendar are included in the interior decor. Also available, upon request, will be steaks, chicken and hamburgers for those who wish to enjoy a Mexican atmosphere but not Mexican food.

Carryout service is available. The dining room and lounge area is designed for a seating capacity of 110 persons.

Tio's Restaurant is open from 11 a.m. until midnight Monday through Saturday.

A conference and meeting room is being prepared and is expected to open in January.

Michael Lumpkins found dead

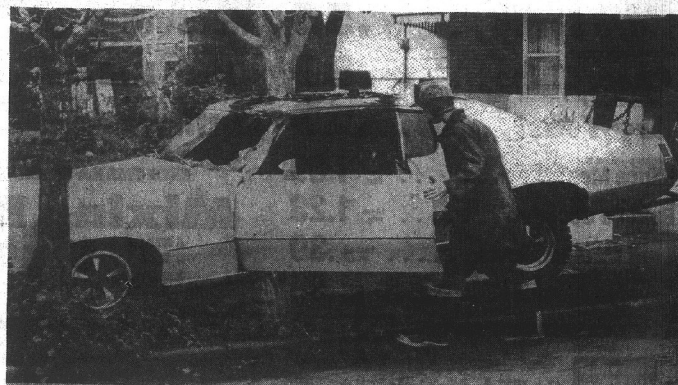

Michael L. Lumpkins, 31, of 4122 Lake Drive, was found hanging above the stairway in his apartment Tuesday and was pronounced dead at 10:40 a.m. by Edward Werner, Madison County deputy coroner, at the scene. He apparently had been dead since Saturday.

His grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Miller of Collinsville, said she became worried when she could not reach him and called the Pontoon Beach Police Department to go to his home to check on him. Police called the deputy coroner and the landlord to enter the apartment.

A lifelong resident of Granite City, Mr. Lumpkins was employed as an electrician at the A. O. Smith Corp. He was a member of Local 309, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

Other survivors include his wife, Mrs. Linda Lumpkins; one son, David Lumpkins; his parents, Mrs. Janet Buzar of Lakeland, Fla., and Harold Lumpkins of Sweetwater, Tex. Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

HEAVY DAMAGE to this 1972 Grand Prix Pontiac is inspected by Madison Fireman Robbie Bosworth. The car caught fire from unknown causes at 6:40 a.m. Wednesday at 12th Street and McCambridge Avenue.

Madison. The car is owned by Charles E. Hutchinson, 1216 Meridian Ave. Damage was estimated at $1,500. Water pours out of the car as Bosworth opens the door.

Urban study by Grennell

Three master of science in urban studies students at SIUE have been awarded public service fellowships for 1977-78. The awards were announced by Michael Quinn, acting director of the program.

The recipients are: Paul L. Grennell, 32, of 2116 Cleveland Blvd., Granite City, Dianne Rains, 26, of Edwardsville, and Edward R. Smith, 24, of the Tower Lake Apartments at SIUE.

Quinn said, "The fellowship, authorized under Title IX of the Higher Education Act of 1965, is designed to support preparation for public service careers of persons who have demonstrated exceptional potential."

Nominations of the three graduate students were made to the U.S. commissioner of education by the Urban Studies Program faculty, based on a review of new students in the program. Their monthly stipends include tuition and fees for the period Sept. 1 through Aug. 31.

Grennell has an academic background in community planning and development from Columbus College, Columbus, Ga., completed in 1976. He is executive director of the Tri-City Area YMCA.

He is married and the father of three daughters and one son. Grennell has been an active YMCA leader for 10 years, including the past year in the executive director position. He has also been active with planning commissions serving as a member. Grennell hopes to apply new techniques he gains in the SIUE program to his present job with the YMCA.

"The SIUE Urban Studies Program is in its fourth year and we believe the curriculum is innovative," Prof. Quinn said.

The board of directors of the Tri-City Area YMCA announced Wednesday that the fall membership campaign will be held during the week of Nov. 14-22.

During YMCA membership week, active recruitment of members will take place, with board members and YMCA members telling the "Y" story. In the past few months, the YMCA has added new staff, improved facilities, developed complete family programming, and provided annual memberships for every member of

"Students will receive training in established fields, instruction in interdisciplinary seminars, and experience in solving 'real' problems in a laboratory setting and in an internship program."

The emphasis in the program is on applied techniques and problem-solving, the director added. Program completion takes five academic quarters.

The family, Paul L. Grennell, executive director, said. The YMCA story is one of planning and development to provide key human services to the Tri-City community, he said.

In direct response to community needs, adult fitness programs have been expanded to include cardiovascular programming goals, Grennell added.

The YMCA is becoming a family YMCA in that various family activities are provided at convenient times in response to expressed needs, he said.

The membership enrollment campaign will be conducted from Nov. 14-22 with youth and adult memberships available at a 10 per cent reduction. Applications for memberships will be available from YMCA board members, annual "Y" members, and the YMCA front office. Anyone interested in joining the YMCA next week should contact any of those individuals or the YMCA at 876-7200 for a membership application.

ENDORSED BY BOARD
The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals is recommending that the Madison County Board approve a variance in the side set-back requirements for James Pohlman and his contractor, Roger Fountain, to construct an addition within four feet of the property line at 81 Shirwin Drive, in an R-3 single-family residential district of Nameoki Township. The zoning requires a set-back of nine feet. The zoning board's recommendation followed an on-site public hearing.

Faith Circle plans Christmas meeting

Ella Ray Smith and Garmel McGovern hosted the Faith Circle meeting last week at the church.

Mrs. Alice Cruse, leader, opened the meeting and read an article entitled, "The Names Christ Would Be Called" taken from books of the Bible.

An article written by Bonnie Barrows on the National Anthem was read by Mrs. Clara Sotiroff. Mrs. Mary Alvers offered the meditations.

GWENDOLYN STRATTON RAYMOND STRATTON JR.

Brother, sister in Navy

Raymond L. Stratton Jr. and Gwendolyn Stratton, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stratton, 2815 Pershing Blvd., are both serving in the United States Navy.

The brother and sister are both graduates of Granite City High School South graduates.

Stratton Jr. is at the Naval Air Station in Millington, Tenn. after completing the first six months of training in aviation electronics and has been promoted to Petty Officer, Third Class.

He currently is taking six months training in advanced aviation electronics.

Corpsman Gwendolyn Stratton currently is working on the surgical floor of the Naval Medical Center at Charleston, S. C., and recently received a promotion in pay grade to an E3 rating.

According to their mother, "Both children seem to be enjoying their navy experience very much."

Insurance still blocks city working agreements

An executive meeting of the Police Local 1347 was scheduled this afternoon to consider City Council rejection of terms proposed by the police union in a new 1977-78 working agreement.

The meeting, in which the union is expected to ask the international union to send a representative to take part in negotiations, was called by Roy Koberna, president of Local 1347, after a caucus meeting of the City Council Wednesday night broke up without progress in setting new working agreements.

The city has not accepted union proposals by employees of the street, police and fire departments. Aldermen have indicated they will not accept proposals containing a provision for hospitalization and medical service extending until age 65 for retirees.

Warren Decatur, chairman of the council's negotiating committee, said that in the discussion last night, the aldermen persisted in their refusal to accept the insurance provisions of the proposed agreements.

Koberna also noted that he believed salary figures quoted by members of the negotiating committee a week ago are "misleading" and that an accounting of salaries and fringe benefits is being prepared.

City officials maintain the cost would be too high to provide insurance for employees and their families that would continue in force until the employee was 65, regardless of when he retired.

FACES TWO CHARGES
Walter Rzycki, 31, of 2216 Madison Ave., was charged with no valid registration and speeding 50 miles per hour on Madison Avenue at 5th Street at 2 a.m. Wednesday. The auto lacked license plates, it was alleged.

PLAQUE PRESENTATION. Mrs. Judy Padgett, right, president of the Downtown Neighborhood Restoration Society, presenting a DNRS plaque to Paul Grennell, executive director of the Tri-Cities YMCA, in appreciation of the support the "Y" has given the organization. She also invited the director to attend the next DNRS meeting at 8 p.m. Friday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Ross, 2528 State St.

There will be an emergency — dial 911 — call system for this area soon?

911 planning begins

The 11 have established a task force of telecommunications experts, including engineers, to design a viable telephone emergency communications system plan for each of the seven counties.

The project team is co-chaired by Charles R. Travos of Illinois Bell and H. R. Gentsch, president of Harrisonville Telephone Co.

The project has been identified as the Southwestern Advanced Telephone System (SWATS) and will take advantage of all technological advances presently available, assuring local governments and public safety agencies of an opportunity to know what is available to best serve the public safety needs of all citizens.

John O. Ellis, executive director of the Southwestern Law Enforcement Commission, said yesterday, "It is imperative that this project be carried out in order to meet the mandates of Illinois statutes requiring that there be a single emergency number 911 operational throughout the state by 1985.

"To accomplish this result in the region, because of the many jurisdictions and overlapping services by geographic area, it is necessary to call on the best and most knowledgeable resources available."

"The goal of the single emergency telephone number is to minimize the response time in answering a phone call for emergency assistance—police, fire, ambulance or some other critical need."

The commission, as the designated planning and coordinating agency for the seven counties, commends the telephone companies for their public-spirited response and assistance in helping to plan for this vital service for Southwestern Illinois."

Meet on new air standards

The Division of Air Pollution Control of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency will hold a public meeting Monday, Nov. 14, to explain methods the agency intends to use to determine which areas of the state are violating air quality standards, and to receive citizen comments. The meeting will be at 10 a.m. at the Illinois Department of Transportation auditorium, 2300 Dirksen Parkway, Springfield.

To make its decision, the Illinois EPA is examining air pollution data gathered from 369 air monitors placed throughout the state, special monitoring studies, special computer modeling studies, and information gathered from industries about fuel use and pollution control equipment.

By Dec. 5, the Illinois EPA must submit a list to the U.S. EPA of all areas in Illinois that are in violation of federal air pollution health standards for carbon monoxide, ozone, nitrogen dioxide, particulates and sulfur dioxide.

Changes in the Clean Air Act, signed into law last summer by President Carter, may require stricter pollution controls in those areas where air pollution levels surpass the health standard.

The U.S. EPA has the final say on which areas will be designated as in violation. A list of areas in violation must be published no later than Feb. 5, 1978.

Driver mistakes Venice highline as 'bumpy' road

"You sure have bumpy road" was the alleged comment by Robert W. Thompson, 60, of Route 3, Chesterfield, Mo., after a railroad switch engine and a tow truck removed his auto from the highline on South Fourth St. in Venice at 6:40 p.m. Wednesday.

Police received a call that a car was stopped on the highline about 40 feet above ground. Thompson is being held in the Venice City Jail today in lieu of $100 bond on a charge of reckless driving.

Authorities believe Thompson drove on the Wiggins highline in Brooklyn.

A railroad switching engine pulled the car along the highline to a point where a wrecker could get the auto down.

Police said Thompson apparently had driven several miles along the tracks on the highline before he was halted by a wider span of tracks.

Schools closed Friday to mark Veterans' Day

All schools except Sacred Heart, will close Friday in observance of Veterans' Day. All State of Illinois offices and the Madison County Courthouse in Edwardsville will be closed. City and Venice city offices will be closed; Madison city offices will be open.

Banks and savings and loan firms will be closed Friday and Saturday, except the American Heritage Bank, which will be open Saturday from 9 a.m. until noon.

Mail will be delivered and the post offices and other federal offices will be open Friday.

Scott fighting nuclear waste

Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott called Tuesday for the Illinois Department of Public Health to terminate the contract under which Illinois agreed to take perpetual care of high-level nuclear wastes stored in General Electric's Morris, Ill., facility.

"This agreement was not very sensible even when it was signed back in 1967," Scott said, "but events over the past ten years have made it absolutely unconscionable for Illinois taxpayers to be stuck with the financial burden for thousands of years in safeguarding wastes from all over the country."

O'Neal to be energy speaker

James H. McGee, mayor of Dayton, Ohio, will share the spotlight with U.S. Sen. David O'Neal of Illinois as principal speakers at a bi-state energy conference, "44th Stouffer's Riverfront Towers in St. Louis Thursday, Nov. 17."

Cosponsored by the Center for Urban and Environmental Research and Services (CURES) at SIUE and the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council, the one-day conference will bring together state and federal officials, energy administrators, county and municipal officials, and agency directors to address the energy problem.

Jail conditions bad, 50 prisoners assert

Fifty Madison County jail prisoners submitted a petition this week to County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer asking for remedy of safety, health, heating, sanitation and other alleged conditions.

The inmates cite a lack of recreational and exercise facilities and complain of mice, bugs, filth and inadequate mattresses and shaving materials.

The petition assails procedures for distribution of medicine, cites lack of privacy, and criticizes the surroundings in which some spend long periods of time.

The 50 seek prompt action, rather than waiting for completion of the new county jail, for which ground was broken to start construction Monday.

Senator Sam M. Vadalabene, Democrat-Edwardsville, announced Tuesday that the Illinois Department of Transportation will conduct a public hearing for a multi-lane highway improvement between Illinois 3 at Wood River and the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville campus.

The hearing is scheduled for Thursday, Jan. 5, at 7:30 p.m. at the Round House in Wood River.

In addition to the public hearing, state officials and the project's consulting engineers, Hurst-Roche, Inc., will be present at the Round House on Wednesday, Nov. 30, from 1:30 to 5 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. to discuss the improvement with the public.

Alternate methods of providing a multi-lane highway will be discussed at both hearing and informational meeting. Alternates will include a routing from Highway 3 and Ferguson Avenue in Wood River, along Madison or Ferguson Avenues or both to Illinois 143, and then on 143 to the northern edge of the campus.

Sen. Vadalabene said both the hearing and the informational meeting are to give people the opportunity to learn about the project and express any views they may have on aspects of the project.

Preliminary estimates have placed the cost at $19 million. This includes $3.5 million for a bridge carrying traffic over the Illinois Terminal, Illinois Central Gulf, Penn Central and Burlington Northern railroad tracks in Wood River.

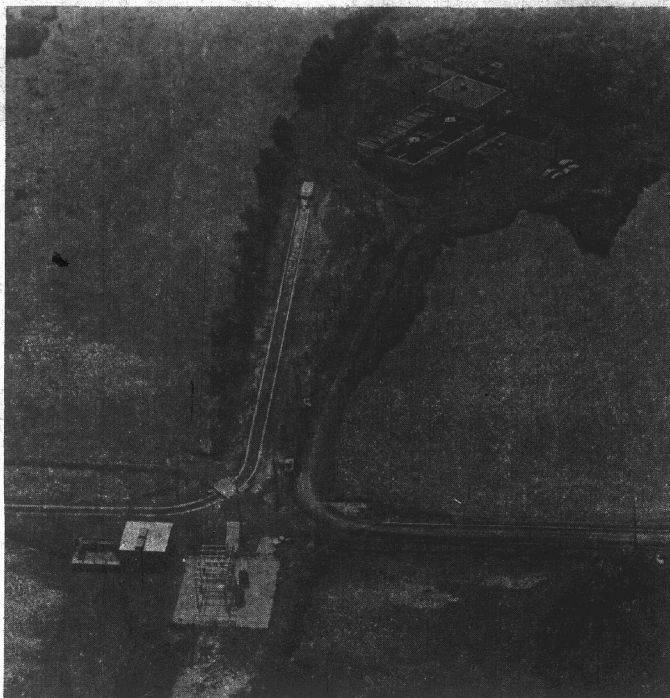

Venice schools plan programs

Plans for observance of American Education Week in Venice schools next week will include a variety of activities.

An open house will be held at the elementary and high school on Tuesday, Nov. 15, from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. for parents to visit.

At 2 p.m. Tuesday, a special assembly will be held with students presenting skills. Music by the chorus also will be presented.

Parent conferences are scheduled Thursday from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. and a special news letter will be published on Thursday.

Charge robbery in purse theft

Archie Pulley, 25, of 2106 Nameoki Road, was charged with robbery in an informational document issued Monday by the Madison County state's attorney's office.

The document alleges he knocked Rose Pilch, 1939 Cleveland Blvd., to the ground and stole her purse at 20th Street and Edison Avenue at 5:15 p.m. Friday.

William Atkins, executive director of the Quad-City Mental Health Center, witnessed the incident and told police.

They located Pulley in the parking lot of the new Granite City Township Community Center building where two other witnesses had chased and caught him.

The purse was found near the front of that building. Rose Pilch suffered a concussion to the right side of her forehead, but did not require hospital treatment.

Extension work here to be topic

The Madison County Homemakers Extension Association will sponsor two district meetings next week.

The program for each of the sessions will feature reports by Associate Adviser Jan Perkins and Valerie Tillman on work the para-professional staff is doing in Venice, Madison, Granite City and Alton.

Highlights of the meetings will be a presentation on "The Selection and Use of Microwave Ovens" given by Mrs. Jo Meyer, home economist with Illinois Power Company in Granite City. She will discuss what to look for in buying, practically, and some of the most common ways it is used in the kitchen.

The first meeting is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Nov. 14 at the ATA Hall in Alhambra with Mrs. Gilbert Hosto, chairman of the Southeast District, presiding. Guests from the Highland North, Leet, St. Jacob and Saline Helvetia units are being invited as well as any other interested person.

The South Central District will host a session at 10:30 a.m. Nov. 15 at the Knights of Collingsville, Bluff, Glen Carbon and Troy units.

Oedipus play setting will feature audience

What should an artistic production of Tom Hughes' Oedipus be? Opinions of the play's graduate student director, Ken Bryant, at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville are that the production must have meaning; it must be an attempt by man to explain his world. Classics should be performed because they are good theater instead of the old belief that culture demands classics, the stresses.

"If you say this is what the world looks like — isn't that bad? Or this is what the world looks like — isn't it good? Don't you want to change it? Do you feel good this way? If you say such things, the play has made a comment of some sort."

"It can be a funny comment, a dramatic or tragic comment. But to be real art, I think it has to have some kind of substance, some kind of quality that makes a judgment about something," Bryant said.

His ambitions are to teach at a university and work as a professional occasionally. He believes people can be trained to use their talents, and hopes to give them assistance in overcoming problems which may take them years to realize. According to Bryant, theater is aesthetically improving. The theater he prefers is art for art's sake. There is hope for the professional person if he looks for it, Bryant believes.

"You got into theater because that's what you enjoy. I got into theater because I enjoy doing theater. People think that theater people are crazy. 'People who work in theater are expected to show emotion. You are trained to go on stage and show emotion. You can't do Oedipus plucking out his eyes and three seconds later not still be expressing emotions, and it's those emotions the outsider sees. They say, 'Isn't he strange, isn't he crazy?' You're trained to let yourself show emotion. You don't hide it as much."

With these thoughts in mind, Bryant's production of Oedipus will not be done in the theater but in a room, which will be covered entirely by the set which the audience will sit upon.

"What we are trying to do is find the possible living ritualistic elements of the drama and present that to the audience. So the production becomes a ritual which is performed for the audience, which assumes the identity of the community for which the ritual is being performed," he explained.

"The audience role is that they are spectators, and they will be treated as spectators. Like I say, as a community, so that in this theater usually the audience is called voyeurs."

"They are peering through a keyhole to watch the action. But in Oedipus, the action will be performed for them and the actors will acknowledge the spectators' presence and their purpose for being there."

"The actor must be challenged to reveal himself. And in revealing himself, the actor challenges the audience members to discover themselves. That is the big theory behind using this set — the actor cannot confront the viewers if they are 75 to 100 feet away."

education, in designing a set for the play. According to Bryant, the audience will "assume the identity of the community" and will sit on the set as spectators. The play will be presented in Room 2007 of the Communications Building.

Astronomy observatory being built

An observatory with a 10-inch reflector telescope will be installed at Belleville Area College. It will be located at the southeast corner of the main campus, 2500 Carlyle Road, near the equipment storage house.

Ash-Dome will begin construction this month of the building that will house the observatory.

Although the observatory will be used primarily for classes, Ken Pinke, instructor in geography-geology areas, indicated there are plans to open it regularly to the public. This will not occur, however, for some months, until the facility is completely operational.

A course in astronomy will be taught beginning in the spring semester at BAC.

Dave Cordes will teach a general astronomy course, with Tuesday labs from 12 to 1:40 p.m.

Students who wish to register for the class, offered through the physical sciences department, are requesting ATY 010, section 01. Pre-registration for the spring semester is now being accepted.

Truckers wary of deregulation

(American Trucking Association)

More than 38,000 communities in America are totally dependent on trucks for their food, fuel, medical supplies and virtually all consumer goods. These communities, most of them small towns, are not served by rail carriers or barge lines. Their well-being is dependent on the health of the trucking industry.

Now, the future of these areas is in some danger from an issue that is little known outside of Washington. It is called the "deregulation" of the motor carrier industry.

Simply stated, the move toward deregulation involves having less federal restrictions on who may operate in the motor carrier industry.

Some of the more extreme deregulation proposals now before Congress and the Interstate Commerce Commission — under the guise of reform — would do away with much of the federal control that has contributed to the building of the most efficient ground transportation system in the world.

Ironically, these moves would undo one of the prime reasons for beginning federal regulation of trucking back in 1935: Making sure that motor carriers are required to serve unprofitable areas — such as small towns — along with the lucrative big city markets.

Congressional committees and federal regulatory agencies have repeatedly been warned that deregulating the industry would lead to a mad scramble to serve only the top trucking markets — the very situation before federal regulation started over 40 years ago.

For example, take the testimony of a small trucking operator before a hearing held by the ICC.

Testifying was Marvin Hayes,

President of Marvin Hayes Lines, Inc., a company that primarily serves towns of 25,000 or less in population.

Speaking for his own firm and 39 other small trucking operators, Hayes told the ICC: "Our total responsibility is to our customer, who is frequently our neighbor, in providing him with the best service to utilize his transportation dollar. We are the only complete motor freight service available to these rural areas."

Again referring to the small regulated companies who serve these areas, Hayes said: "Go to the rural communities each day and see who is delivering to the hospitals, the drug stores, the doctors, the dentists and the department stores. We (the rural trucking firms) are the most unique group this country has. We are its heartbeat. If we are destroyed (by deregulation), it will only gravely problems in an integral part of our great country, its grassroots."

Hayes said carriers serving small towns deserve regulatory protection for fulfilling their obligations.

Early in 1976, the American Trucking Associations sent out 3,438 questionnaires to participants in the National Motor Freight Classification, an industry-wide group that deals with how freight is classified to determine fair rates. There were 900 replies, and here are some of the results:

A weighted average of the replies shows 70.4 per cent of the firms would cut off some or all of the communities they now serve if deregulation occurred. And they would reduce the average number of towns they now serve from the present 84 to an estimated 58.

If firms were not required to serve any specific areas, only 45.9 per cent of those responding would continue to bring goods to towns of under 5,000 population.

Deregulation would be responsible for eventual increases in shipping costs to consumers, 75.1 per cent of the companies responding said.

And 82.4 per cent of the firms said there would be an eventual decrease in transportation service to small towns.

The National League of Cities in an official resolution said, it "opposes the deregulation of common carriers since it poses a threat to the continuance of service to small communities."

The Cleveland Plain Dealer has commented, "Deregulation as proposed by the (former President Gerald) Ford could bring rare wars disastrous to carriers and shippers alike. Small or out-of-the-way communities could be bypassed or be made subject to premium rates for service by carriers taking full advantage of free and easy routing."

The Staunton, Va., leader said, "In the case of the common carriers of freight on highways, doing away with federal controls would be detrimental to them and the users of their services."

And the Mankato, Minn., Free Press said, "It was not until regulation — the setting of rates to allow the 'little' guy to compete and power to license so that a trucker couldn't unilaterally decide to pull out of an otherwise unprofitable route — that smaller communities finally received the scheduled and dependable service we still have today."

Rescue technicians trained by college

Belleville Area College is one of ten community colleges chosen by the Illinois Community College Board and the Illinois Department of Transportation to train emergency rescue technicians.

Upon successful completion of training, participating firemen will be certified by the Illinois Department of Transportation as certified auto extricators.

Belleville Area College will combine this training with its emergency medical technician program on Nov. 19, using the 30 men in rescue training as team captains for 75 men who are in the EMT program in a massive extrication and rescue practice.

The more than 100 firemen will also practice with the Stokes basket and with the Sky Crane, learning how to move injured people from buildings and from one level to another.

The day's activities will include exercises in moving injured from cars; moving victims from high voltage situations, burning vehicles, and the like; and treatment of accident victims who have fractures.

Dr. Lou Ketting, supervisor of allied health programs at BAC, notes that the college has had regular certification exercises in the past, but he is not aware of any previous extrication and rescue operation of this magnitude in the region.

BAC operating costs below average in state

Figures just released by the Illinois Community College Board indicate that Belleville Area College's operating cost continues to be below the average for the state's 39 community college districts.

The state average of $52.79 per unit of instruction compares to $49.49 at Belleville, whose district includes the Quad Cities.

Comparisons in specific categories include: baccalaureate oriented $54.59 state average, $47.40 at Belleville; business occupational — $50.35 state average, $38.32 at Belleville.

Notices to supervisors, sheriffs on fuel cutoffs

The Illinois Commerce Commission is advising the directors of departments of public health, township supervisors and county sheriffs throughout Illinois that they will be notified when a utility intends to disconnect residential heating service during the months of November through March.

Public Act 80-953, which became law in September, requires that electric or gas utilities inform the proper local officials at least 24 hours prior to disconnecting heating service when the cutoff was not requested by the customer.

The commission passed a resolution to insure that public officials are aware of the new law and will have adequate time before severe weather sets in to formulate a local response plan, if that is their intent.

The commission requires utilities to notify customers in writing prior to disconnecting gas, electric, telephone, water or sewer service. The customer must receive the notice at least five days prior to disconnection.

Gas and electric service cannot be shut off after 2 p.m. during the workweek or after noon on Fridays or days preceding holidays, unless the utility is prepared to reconnect service by 8 p.m. the same day.

at the normal reconnection charge.

Times are based on normal work hours for a utility's servicemen, and may vary slightly among utility companies.

The commission requires utilities to waive one service reconnection charge per year.

Promotion for local airman

Johnny L. George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby J. George, 2601 Cayuga St., Granite City, has received his first promotion in the U.S. Air Force. George, promoted to airman, completed technical training at Sheppard Air Force Base, Tex., and is assigned at Hurlburt Field, Velparaiso, Fla.

He serves as an aircraft maintenance specialist with a unit of the Tactical Air Command. A 1974 high school graduate, he attended the Gateway Bible College, St. Louis. His wife, Annette, is the daughter of Corene Bradford of Rockford, Ill.

Youth charged with ordering dog to attack police officer

Granite City police have signed a complaint charging Larry M. Jordan, 18, of 2009 Beckwith St., Madison, with aggravated assault for allegedly ordering his black German Shepherd dog to attack a Granite City police officer Nov. 3.

Patrolman J.W. Apperson was able to keep the dog away from him, using a flashlight.

Apperson first saw Jordan at 20th Street and Lee Avenue and stopped to question him. It was alleged Jordan used profanity and threatened a man at the scene.

BELLINGER DRIVE PLANNED IN VENICE

Mary Svesia of Venice has announced that Bellinger workers will go house to house during November collecting for mental health. She is chairman for the drive to benefit the Mental Health Association in Illinois.

The private group works on behalf of the mentally and emotionally disturbed.

Bellinger workers collecting in Venice are Sherrie Baker, Tami Boushady, Jeanie Belbey, Lisa Moshan, Betty Mulnick, Joe Mulnick, John Mulnick, Mike McGee, Mary Beth McGarrhan, Denise Rankin, Teresa Scatturo, Carl Scatturo, Tena Scatturo, Linda Patterson, Mary Ann Tolliver, Richard Schmidt, Rita Schmidt and Ramona Schmidt.

When Apperson attempted to arrest him Jordan allegedly threatened to have his dog attack the officer. He then fled on foot and was chased to the 2000 block of Washington Avenue where Jordan stopped and ordered his dog to attack Apperson, it was reported.

Apperson was able to keep from being bitten and held Jordan and the dog against a fence until help arrived. Jordan was charged with resisting arrest and disorderly conduct at that time. Apperson later signed the aggravated assault complaint against him.

STOLEN CAR FOUND

Marion Evans, 2216 rear Lee Ave., returned home Monday to find her auto had been stolen from her rear yard during the previous four days. Illinois state troopers reported finding the auto abandoned on Route 40 by Fairmount Race Track.

News notes

Governor James R. Thompson last week opened a 13.1-mile section of Interstate 55, a bypass which takes the road around the city of Lincoln in Logan County. "The opening of this bypass means that I-55 is now 75 per cent complete. This is another step toward the completion of Illinois' 1,700-mile interstate system, the third largest in the nation," Thompson said. When completed in 1979, I-55 will be 295 miles in length, connecting this area to Chicago.

Unemployment in Illinois fell slightly in October to 5.1 per cent, according to statistics of the Illinois Department of Labor. The September rate was 5.2 per cent. In October 1976, 6.6 per cent of the Illinois work force was unemployed.

The first lottery tickets in the U.S. which offer both an instant and a weekly game on the same ticket, with both cash and merchandise prizes, went on sale in Illinois Tuesday. According to Lottery Superintendent Richard W. Carlson, the prize structure of the new $1 game, "Goldstrike," features the best odds for winning of any game in state lottery history. By dividing the few big-money prizes into many smaller prizes, lottery officials have raised the odds of winning in the new game to better than one in 10, he said.

The Illinois Commerce Commission, which regulates public utilities in Illinois, last week ordered all telephone companies in the state to provide dual listing service to customers without a monthly service charge. Any two adult customers with the same surname who live together and have the same home telephone number may direct their telephone company to jointly list their names in the directory.

A new law, effective this winter, requires that electric or gas utilities notify local officials at least 24 hours before disconnecting residential heating service during the months of November through March. The Illinois Commerce Commission has begun reminding township supervisors, county sheriffs and health departments that they will receive notice from utilities of any residential heating cutoffs not requested by the customer involved.

The Illinois Department of Conservation last week announced that its fishery biologists have stocked 140,000 channel catfish at 47 public fishing areas in Illinois. The fish should reach a catchable size by mid-summer or early fall in 1978.

Aid in writing circuit breaker rebate forms

The two Senior Action Centers of Lt. Gov. Dave O'Neal, located in Chicago and Springfield, will assist senior citizens and disabled persons throughout the state at no charge in preparing their "circuit breaker" rebate forms.

Senior citizens and disabled persons in downstate Illinois can use a toll-free telephone number, 800-6565.

Circuit breaker is a state-funded rebate for senior citizens and disabled persons who are renters or tax paying homeowners.

Mr. O'Neal said, "I am urging persons eligible to file for circuit breaker to do so by Dec. 1 so they can avoid the last-minute rush in meeting the Dec. 31 deadline."

"They will need to know what their Social Security and other income was for the years they wish to receive the rebate.

If they do not know this information, the time to obtain it is now. It will take several weeks for Social Security officials to get this information for them."

O'Neal added, "Seniors and disabled persons can apply for circuit breaker as far back as 1972, provided they were disabled or age 65 and over and had an income of less than $10,000, including Social Security benefits, at that time."

He concluded, "My senior action centers stand ready to assist senior citizens and disabled persons year-round, not only with circuit breaker but any type of problem they may have—housing, transportation, medicare and medical, nutritional programs, public aid, homestead exemption or other complaints."

A WORD GAME

Here are two sentences containing exactly the same words in the same order. Because of punctuation, however, the sentences mean different things.

HAVE YOU HEARD JOHN?

HAVE YOU HEARD, JOHN?

What sentences can you invent where punctuation changes the meaning of the sentence?

PUNCTUATION

MY FATHER IS PRESIDENT LINCOLN.

Read the sentence above.

Keep the words in the same order and change the punctuation as you like.

How many different sentences can you make?

STRANGE WORDS

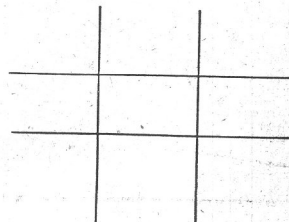

"There are lots of hice on my street."

Strange sentence, isn't it? The plural of MOUSE is MICE, but the plural of house is not hice.

TIC-TAC-TOE

AN INCREDIBLY HARD PROBLEM

Earlier, you may have worked a simple container problem. Here's one that's not so simple, but IS solvable. Both people need TWO litres. Can you solve it? The men have filled four litre, five litre and ten litre containers and no external fluid is available.

PATTERNS

Use graph paper or blocks or Unix to make the following pattern in blacks and whites:

the 1574th square?

Suppose you had to explain to a friend how to find out the color of any square he asked about. What would you say?

Introducing
Ultravue
PROGRESSIVE POWER LENS

WHAT MAKES THE ULTRAVUE LENS BETTER THAN THE CONVENTIONAL BIFOCAL?

For one thing, it offers superior visual properties — there's no reading segment line to "get used to" so there's no confused or split image, or sudden extremes in magnification. You have clear vision at all distances, with minimal distortion around the edges. Then there is the design of the lens itself. It has a wide reading area; there's no visible segment line and it's designed to be used with the fashion look of today. The ULTRAVUE lens is made of optical quality, hard resin, so it is light in weight (half the weight of glass), impact resistant, and available in a wide range of attractive colors and tints. All in all, the ULTRAVUE lens has the versatility to meet your personal needs and preferences, without sacrificing superior optical performance. Nobody ever has to know that you're wearing a bifocal lens. It's your secret.

WE HAVE A SPECIAL PLAN FOR THOSE OF YOU WHO HAVE PURCHASED CONVENTIONAL BIFOCAL LENSES IN THE PAST 3 MONTHS FROM US. A SPECIAL ALLOWANCE WILL BE MADE IF YOU WISH TO SWITCH FROM CONVENTIONAL BIFOCALS TO ULTRAVUE LENSES.

New 'Service Corps' to aid businesses

The organizational meeting of a new Service Corps of Retired Executives known as SCORE was held Monday in the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce office, which will be the unit's headquarters and meeting location for future operations.

The SCORE chapter is sponsored by the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), with headquarters in Springfield, Ill. The function of the local SCORE chapter, which is expected to be designated the Tri-Cities Area Chapter, is to guide and aid Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce members who need management counseling, training or other services that can be readily furnished by the chapter because of their lifetimes of experience in various businesses.

In addition, SBA works with local banks and guarantees up to 90 per cent of loans to deserving businesses as recommended by the SCORE chapter, Chamber officials said. The SCORE chapter first makes an analysis of the help needed by any individual business which makes an application for help.

If it is a matter of business practice or managerial help, it will be handled completely by the local chapter. If it is a matter of finances which the business cannot arrange locally without help, application then is made to SBA in Springfield, who will follow through, it was explained.

A spokesman for the Chamber indicated after the meeting that several small business owners already have talked with the Chamber about assistance, which has been held up until the new chapter is organized and ready to receive applications for assistance.

That has now been accomplished, and even though the chapter would like to have an additional three or four more SCORE members, the Chamber now is ready to receive applications which will be referred to the new SCORE chapter, which will aid them as their condition requires, the spokesman said.

The SCORE membership includes: Dale Arnette, chairman; Elmer Baker, vice-chairman; Homer Huber, Harold Fischer, Mitchell B. Milonski, William Slater, A. P. Steinhilber, and C. E. Townsend.

The group suggested that anyone who knows a retired executive in the area should get in touch with the Chamber office and make it known so that the individual may be contacted and invited to join in what appears to be a valuable asset to the entire business community.

Any businessman or businesswoman who believes the chapter can help, is invited to call Chamber representatives and make arrangements to meet with them, or the Chamber, in turn, may arrange to send one or two of the members to visit their place of business.

All of the retired executives are volunteers who donate their time and will be under the direct supervision of the Springfield SBA office. There are only two other chapters of SCORE at Decatur and Marion at this time. The Tri-Cities Area chapter is located about midway between the two.

NEW COMMANDER Major General Robert Sadler participates in a change-of-command ceremony of the Air Force Communications Service, which this month was officially transferred to Scott Air Force Base, Belleville. The command engineers, installs, operates and maintains communications-electronics-meteorological facilities for all Air Force commands, plus air traffic control and navigational aids.

Hospital's 1969-70 bonds to be redeemed

First mortgage bonds of the Sisters of Divine Providence for St. Elizabeth Hospital, Granite City, are being called for redemption on Dec. 1.

Sister Mary Thomas, hospital president, said this week that holders of the serial bond A series, dated Dec. 1, 1969, and B series, Sept. 1, 1970, are affected.

The notice relates that in accord with the first mortgage indenture securing the two series, all the remaining outstanding bonds of these issues are being called for redemption. They are being called at par and at interest accrued to Dec. 1.

Holders of such bonds are being notified to present them with the Dec. 1, 1977, coupons and all subsequent coupons on or after Dec. 1 at the Granite City Trust and Savings Bank for redemption.

Interest will cease to accrue on the A and B bonds as of the end of this month.

The bank serves as trustee for the bonds.

A new bond series including debt and new facilities was issued by the hospital this year.

4th graders Communications Service at Scott

Students in the fourth grades in the Madison and Venice public and parochial schools will be attending the 1977-78 student St. Louis Symphony Orchestra concerts at Powell Hall.

Tickets have been provided by the Venice-Madison Fine Arts Committee through a grant from the Illinois Arts Council, an agency of the state.

Mrs. Margaret Lee is chairman of the committee and Mrs. Marguerite Connelley, curriculum director of the Madison public schools, is coordinating the project.

The first group attended Wednesday at the 11 a.m. performance. Students from the classes of Miss Mary Whitely, Mrs. Dorothy Johnson and Mrs. Sharon Heubner of the Louis Baer School, Madison, were in the first group to attend.

The concert will be performed under the supervision and direction of Gerhard Zimmer, assistant conductor of the Symphony.

Yesterday's program featured Robert Coleman on clarinet.

Selections were the Light Cavalry Overture, Danse Boheme from "Carmen Suite No. 2," Concertino in E minor for Clarinet and Orchestra, Opus 45, with Coleman as soloist, Symphony No. 38-3rd Movement and the Valdes March.

Major General Robert Sadler has become the ninth commander of the Air Force Communications Service in a formal change of command ceremony at Richards-Gebaur Air Force Base, Kansas City, Mo.

He replaced retiring Major General Rupert H. Burris, who had been the commander since Aug. 25, 1975. When he assumed that position, Gen. Burris became the first married officer to head an Air Force major command.

In a related action, the headquarters for AFCS was officially transferred to Scott AFB, Belleville, Ill., on Nov. 1.

Gen. Burris, 52, was presented the distinguished service medal during the retirement ceremonies by General William V. McBride, Air Force vice chief of staff.

He was born in Wheeling, Spring, Ark., graduating from high school in 1943 in El Dorado, Ark., and received a bachelor of arts degree in business administration from Jackson College, Hoxworth, Hawaii.

He attended Squadron Officers School and the Air War College at Maxwell AFB Ala., and the Armed Forces Staff College at Norfolk, Va.

During World War II, Gen. Burris enlisted in the U.S. Army Air Forces in October 1943 and served as a B-17 aircraft armorer and gunner in the European theater of operations, completing 30 combat missions over Germany and France.

He enlisted in March 1947, serving as an administrative clerk until July 1948, when he entered officer candidate school at Lackland AFB, Tex. There, he received his commission as a second lieutenant in December 1948.

Following completion of the aircraft warning officers course at Keeter AFB, Miss., all of his assignments around the world have been associated with communications and electronics.

Gen. Sadler, as commander, is responsible for the AFCS mission, which includes engineering, installing, operating and maintaining communications-electronics-meteorological facilities for all Air Force commands.

AFCS is also responsible for operating long-haul intercontinental and local base communications, air traffic control, and navigational aid facilities and services for the Air Force and selected government and civilian agencies.

In Loving Memory of HAROLD TALLEY, Nov. 11, 1976
I lost my life's companion A link I missed with my own. And everyday I miss him more As I walk thru life alone. No one knows the silent heartaches. Oh the grief I bear in silence. For the one I loved so well I never knew that hearts could ache with such a bitter pain. Longing for a vanishing face To hear his voice again. I never knew that night could be so lonely, cold and dim. But I have learned so many things because of losing him. Sadly missed by— Wife and Children 33 11 10
